WARSHIPS ARE HUNTED NEAR PHILIPPINES

Planes From Canada For Armed Forces Of Great Britain

Minister Indicates Plants in Dominion to Aid Building Speed-up

Canadian Survey Shows Possibilities

LONDON (AP)—Earl Winterton, Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, announced in the House of Commons today the government was investigating the possibility of buying airplanes in Canada and the United States for the Royal Air Force.

Cheers greeted this statement, with which Lord Winterton replied to two questions:

"Definite exploratory action has been taken in regard to the possibility of providing aircraft for the R.A.F. from the United States and Canada."

WORK DAY AND NIGHT

Numerous members of Parliament have advocated this step as the only way to catch up with Germany's aircraft production in the near future. Great Britain's aviation factories, although working day and night, still are unable to meet the demand.

Some members have urged the government to build aircraft factories in Canada, arguing that in case of war a direct supply of planes from the United States might be shut off by the neutrality act.

Officials refused to comment on unconfirmed reports the Air Ministry already had sent a technical mission to the United States to examine the latest plane models and production methods.

PROGRESS ALREADY

OTTAWA (CP)—Considerable progress has already been made in the way of setting up "shadow factories" in Canada for the purpose of manufacturing not only aircraft, but also of other types of war material, it was learned here today. "Shadow factories," it was explained, were those which had been surveyed by the government with a view to ascertaining their potential productive capacity of armaments

A survey completed in Canada by the National Defence Department some time ago embraced more than 700 Canadian concerns.

Already some Canadian plants are turning out war material for

HEAVY AGENDA FOR TEACHERS

B.C. School Officials Will Consider 55 Resolutions at Convention Here

Fifty-five resolutions relating to curriculum, examinations, equipment, leave of absence, pensions, salaries, taxation and other matters will be on the agenda of the British Columbia Teachers' Federation convention to be held in Victoria April 18 to 21.

One resolution asks the Department of Education to create a certificate which shall be available to teachers on completion of second year university, enabling them to teach in junior high schools.

The Northern Vancouver Island Teachers' Association asks a "simpler outline" of the new course of study adopted in British Columbia's school system.

Provincial Principals' Association suggests abolition of entrance examination in public schools, and urges that promotion from Grade 8 to Grade 9 be on recommendation of the principal.

Council of the British Columbia Secondary School Teachers' Association will present a motion recommending a shorter day in junior high schools.

Vancouver Secondary School Teachers' Association feels provision should be made for option of retirement of teachers five years earlier than at present.

Surrey Teachers' Association asks that the provincial government fix and make compulsory schedules of "fit and proper salaries to be paid teachers."

Window Is Broken And Man Charged

VANCOUVER (CP) — Charles Wallace was held by police today on a charge of malicious damage to property. He was arrested a short time after a large rock had been thrown through the plate glass window of the Japanese-Canadian Association here early today.

Newest Equipment For Divers

The picture above does not mark the opening of the spring season for sea-serpent stories. Nor is it a portrait of the villain in a Wellsian astral fantasy. It is just the latest in spring styles for deep-sea divers. This ton-and-a-half diving suit, with jointed arms and legs, was invented by Cavalier Roberto Galeazzi and successfully tested at Spezia, Italy. Able to descend more than 800 feet, it gives promise of improved salvage operations and opens up new fields of underwater exploration.

Oak Bay Fire Trucks Arrive

Ecstatic School Children Take Over Engines When They Reach New Hall

Impressive with shiny red paint and lots of gold scroll work, Oak Bay's two new fire trucks made a royal progress from the C.N.R. yards below Government Street to the municipality's new fire hall this morning.

The second truck followed a few minutes later.

As soon as they reached the yard of the semi-Tudor Oak Bay fire hall at the junction of Monterey Avenue and St. Ann Street the trucks were rapturously taken over by a crowd of private school children, now out on holiday, who scrambled over each other to sit in the driver's seats and generally admire the trucks.

A small dog accompanying the children added its yelps to the general excitement.

TRIP TO NANAIMO

One of the two trucks will go off on a personal appearance tour to Nanaimo next Saturday, in connection with the Vancouver Island Fire Chief's Convention. The trip is being made at the request of the builders, the Bickle-Seagrave Company of Woodstock, Ont., who wish to show their very latest equipment at the meetings.

The two trucks will go through their three-hour underwriters' tests at the Ogden Point docks at high tide either Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning of next week.

Plans for the opening ceremony at the fire hall are not yet completed. They depend on the date of the return to Victoria of Premier Pattullo, who has been asked to officiate as a resident of Oak Bay and a native of Woodstock, where the trucks were assembled.

The hall is finished except for a few details. Today members of the force were at work putting in odd shelves and the like to suit their convenience.

The large tarmac apron in front of the hall was receiving its final touches today, with a steam roller at work leveling it off.

The practice fire hydrant outside the hall was put in yesterday.

Surface Craft and Planes Seek Mystery Fleet of Twenty-two Destroyers

Confirmation of Reports Comes From Numerous Quarters That Squadron of Unidentified Warships Visited Davao Gulf Region; Near There Is a Large Japanese Settlement; Two U.S. Destroyers and Island U.S. Planes Join in Search

MANILA (CP)—United States warships acting with American and Philippine army planes were said by usually reliable sources to have been dispatched Wednesday to investigate the mysterious fleet of 22 destroyers and tenders reported seen off Davao Gulf, southern Philippines, last Sunday and Monday.

Two United States destroyers, it was unofficially affirmed, were being diverted from a routine cruise to French Indo-China to hunt the fleet.

While both the United States and Philippine army authorities were officially silent, it was learned authoritatively two American bombers and two Philippine army planes likewise had proceeded from Manila.

High Commissioner Paul V. McNutt, who had been advised of reports an unidentified fleet had been seen, said he preferred not to comment, "lacking complete confirmation of identity" of the presence of the flotilla.

Japanese Vice-Consul Jitaro Kihara disclaimed any knowledge of the presence in Philippine waters of warships of his country, and said it would be impossible for such visit to be made without proper diplomatic representations.

CONFIRMATION

Earlier reports of the presence of destroyers off the Davao Gulf were confirmed Wednesday from many sources.

Government officials remained silent beyond admitting the army had ordered an investigation.

Maj.-Gen. Paulino Santos, chief of staff of the Philippine army, called on the Davao army commander to determine the nationality and purpose of the strange warcraft, but declined to reveal what he had learned.

Masters of a number of commercial steamers, the governor of Davao province and the collector of customs at Davao were among those who reported they had sighted the craft.

TENDER SEEN

One informant told of seeing 22 destroyers and a tender ship anchored about 60 miles off Davao, heart of the rich agricultural area of the Philippines dominated by Japanese residents and long a sore spot in Philippine administration.

Others said the fleet was in motion when sighted.

Replying to a newspaper query, the captain of the inter-island motorship Rizal who first sighted the flotilla, said the warships "refused to answer our radio as to their nationality, but they appeared to be Japanese."

Fish Men Fear For U.K. Market

Hear U.S. Interests Seeking Free Entry to Dump Large Holdover

B.C. fish canners and packers are alarmed as a result of attempts by U.S. canners to gain free entry for canned salmon into the British market in the new trade agreement between Britain and the United States, according to reports reaching the provincial fisheries department.

B.C. ships the bulk of its canned salmon to Empire markets. About $4,000,000, or half the export, goes to the United Kingdom, where it enjoys a 10 per cent preference.

As explained here, U.S. canners have a big carry over of salmon from last year, and if they are successful in getting free entry into Britain, might easily break the market for the B.C. products.

The B.C. canners have already made representations to Ottawa, it is stated.

They also point out that under its favored nation agreement with Japan, if Britain removes the tariff against United States salmon it automatically allows Japanese salmon free entry.

New Zealand Studies Policy

WELLINGTON, N.Z. (CP)—Prime Minister Michael Savage today declared the statement of Malcolm MacDonald, Secretary for the Dominions, that no communication had been received from New Zealand expressing disagreement with the general foreign policy of the British Government "does not altogether state the facts."

"We have disagreed with certain phases of British policy, but we have never allowed differences of opinion to divide the empire," The New Zealand Prime Minister explained.

The Dominions Secretary's statement "does not altogether state the facts—if he has been correctly reported."

He added he was seeking confirmation of Mr. MacDonald's statement and did not desire to

Daladier Is Given Decree Powers to Strengthen France

Senate's 228 to 1 Vote Follows Chamber's Action; Strikes to Be Ended

PARIS (AP)—The Senate today voted by 228 to 1 to give Premier Edouard Daladier's "national defence" cabinet powers to govern France by decree until July 31. The Chamber of Deputies previously had approved the decree powers bill.

Senate approval completed parliamentary action on the measure clothing the new premier with unusual powers to cope with the republic's acute financial and labor problems.

M. Daladier turned immediately to fight the strike movement as his first step toward putting France's house in order.

With publication of Parliament's action in the official gazette tomorrow, Premier Daladier automatically will begin governing by decree of the council of ministers, the cabinet meeting with President Albert Lebrun.

NEW VOTING SYSTEM

M. Daladier, determined to end "political strikes," told the finance committee of the Senate one of his first decrees would make a government-controlled vote of workers necessary before a strike could be declared.

Government investigators found in at least one factory involved in the current strike wave pickets not employed by the plant had engineered the walkout.

The only vote in the Senate against Daladier was that of a man who was not even present and did not know what was taking place. He was Gustave Elie Perreau, member of the majority democratic left group, which decided after he had left for the provinces two days ago that all would vote for Daladier.

M. Perreau, however, had left his vote in the hands of another senator with instructions to use it against the cabinet.

Tourist Council Will Be Named

Victoria to Be Represented On Government's New Advisory Body

A British Columbia Tourist Council of seven members will be set up shortly under the new Department of Trade and Industry, E. G. Rowebottom, the deputy minister, said today.

Under the act governing the department the council will consist of four civil servants and three outside members. It is expected the outside members will include representatives from Victoria, Vancouver and the interior.

W. Lloyd Craig, director of tourist and industrial development, is at present on a tour of the interior, discussing tourist advertising with local boards of trade. This is in conjunction with the bureau's plan of coordinating its publicity program to cover all sections of the province.

Major Gordon Smith, commissioner of tourist development, is touring the Pacific Coast in the interests of publicity work. This week he is in Los Angeles.

Chinese Forces Grow As Central Battle Spreads

Japanese, Stalled at Least Temporarily, Send More Troops Into Area

By ELMER PETERSON
Associated Press Foreign Staff

SHANGHAI (AP)—Employing European military tactics with increasing skill, or, when necessary, the big swords of their ancestors, the Chinese, temporarily at least, have stalled the Japanese war machine on the central China front.

The real test of this new Chinese resistance, however, is yet to come, with numbers, geographical position and improvement in training of soldiers among the factors in China's favor.

Japanese reinforcements are continuing to pour into Shantung Province. This probably means a smashing drive to regain what is left of Taierhchwang, embattled southern Shantung town

WORK OF IRREGULARS

Chief credit for the recent Taierhchwang victory is given to irregular Chinese units who demoralized Japanese communications along the Tientsin-Pukow railway. If these irregulars operated according to plan, then it was the highest form of strategy, in the opinion of foreign military experts here.

If General Lee Tsung-jen did not control the units, which limited Japanese supplies of ammunition, gasoline and food, the Chinese victory had a pronounced element of good fortune.

Aside from this advantage in weakened communications for the Japanese, foreign military observers are agreed the Chinese are improving as soldiers.

Priest Uncovers New Gold Find

Stakers Rush to McBride Bay on West Coast of Island

Because Father Anthony of the Catholic coast missions felt like a spring walk after conducting a service at McBride Bay, Esperanza Inlet, across from Ceepeecee, and happened to stop beside a particular boulder, another gold stampede is under way on the west coast of this island, according to word brought south by passengers aboard Ss. Princess Maquinna.

The priest saw gold in the veins of the boulder. Upon examination he found the rock and its apparent values similar to the rich ore he had seen on his visits to Zeballos. Tracing up the hillside for the source of the boulder, he found a series of highly mineralized veins, one being eight feet wide.

Not knowing what to do about his find, Father Anthony went across the bay to consult his friend, James Ferguson, who was prospecting a property with a crew. Mr. Ferguson is the discoverer of the Ferguson mine in the northern interior of B.C. After disposing of it to the Ridgway Wilson interests of Vancouver he lived in retirement in Oak Bay until the West Coast excitement became too much for him to resist.

Mr. Ferguson after examining the veins the priest had found

Mines Department Goes Ahead With Improvements at Zeballos

Immediate steps for public improvements at the new gold field townsite of Zeballos will be taken by Hon. W. J. Asselstine, Minister of Mines, who returned today from the west coast.

He announced that arrangements had been completed to build a cableway across the mouth of the Zeballos River to facilitate crossing. A contract for the job has been let. It will be a two strand suspension footway.

This morning Mr. Asselstine conferred with Hon. F. M. MacPherson, Minister of Public Works, regarding road needs of the new field, and Mr. MacPherson said afterwards he has under consideration the graveling of the main road for two miles from the townsite to the Man-o-war Mine cut-off.

Mr. Asselstine said a school was needed at Zeballos.

He was warm in his commendation of the efforts shown by the mining interests in developing their trails. Crews from the Central Zeballos Mine had done an exceptionally good job, he said.

He also praised the accommodation provided by the companies for their men.

New Reich North Sea Naval Base

Duff Cooper Tells British Commons of Works On Sylt Island

LONDON (AP)—Germany is establishing a fortified naval base on the Island of Sylt in the North Sea off the west coast of German Schleswig-Holstein, Rt. Hon. Alfred Duff Cooper, First Lord of the Admiralty, told the House of Commons today.

In response to a question he added the Admiralty "have considered all the implications arising from this new development."

He declined to "commit myself without notice" when asked if Germany had notified Great Britain of her intention to build the Sylt base in compliance with the terms of the Anglo-German naval treaty.

Sylt, 22 miles long and varying in width from half a mile to eight miles, lies just off the German-Danish border.

Grey Owl, Lover Of Animals, Dies

Indian Naturalist and Writer Succumbs to Pneumonia at Prince Albert, Sask.

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask. (CP)—Lover of wild life and staunch campaigner for animal conservation, Grey Owl died of pneumonia in a Prince Albert hospital today. The noted Canadian Indian's death came suddenly.

He succumbed while his wife, Silver Dawn, was recuperating in the Grey Nuns' Hospital at Regina from an operation. Silver Dawn and their six-year-old daughter, Shirley Dawn, survive him.

Officials at Prince Albert National Park noticed last Sunday that Grey Owl had suffered a cold. They took him to the hospital, where it was found one of his legs was paralyzed.

LECTURED WIDELY

Tall and distinguished, Grey Owl had carried his pleas on behalf of the forest animals he loved throughout Canada, the United States and across the ocean to the British Isles. Only recently he returned from a tour of the United Kingdom, where he delivered numerous lectures.

He first launched his conservation work in Riding Mountain National Park, 120 miles northwest of Winnipeg, after spending his early life with an Indian band of trappers in northern Quebec. Impressed by wanton destruction the British government, shells for the new 3.45-inch field gun being made by the National Steel Car Company of Hamilton.

So far as British purchases of aircraft in Canada are concerned, nine Canadian firms are building airplanes for the National Defence Department, all of them types employed by the Royal Air Force. These embrace machines from "Ab initio" training type to the speediest fighters and bombers.

TALKS IN LONDON

Some of those companies have representatives at present in London, and they are believed to be advancing to the War Office the advantages of having efficient aircraft factories established remote from centres that would be liable to be destroyed by aerial bombing in the event of war.

In no case does the National Defence Department promote the interests of the rival Canadian commercial concerns, nor have they been assisted in the matter of securing contracts. The companies, when building for the department, do so, with one exception only, on a cost-plus basis. What terms may be made with the British government are not known.

Following are the Canadian companies with which the Defence Department has contracts: Canadian Vickers Ltd., Montreal; Fairchild Aircraft Ltd., Longueil, Que.; Norduyn Aircraft Ltd., St. Lambert, Que.; Ottawa Car Manufacturing Co., Ottawa; De Havilland Aircraft Co. of Canada, Toronto; Fleet Aircraft Co. Ltd., Fort Erie, Ont.; Boeing Aircraft Co., Vancouver; Canadian Car and Foundry Ltd., Montreal, and National Steel Car Co., Hamilton.

Canada's aircraft program envisages delivery of 102 first line planes under the 1937 appropriations, and 75 under the current year's vote.

URGED BY TIMES

LONDON (CP-Havas) — The setting up in Canada of shadow factories for the manufacture of airplanes, similar to those now existing in Great Britain, was suggested today by The Times of London.

The newspaper said that although present plans would give Britain 1,750 first-line planes by next March, this figure should if possible be exceeded before that date.

the province," he said. "I can remember in my early mining days we had to live in some pretty rough places. But up there, despite the newness of the camp, they have wonderful accommodation. The Privateer, for instance, has shower baths, hot and cold water, and electric light in the bunkhouses. It has a big dining-room with fine white tables, a refrigeration plant and a spotless kitchen."

Mr. Asselstine said the country has been staked for 20 miles around Zeballos. Dr. J. R. Maconachie, the department's mining engineer, who has been stationed there to assist prospectors in determining the value of their finds, will remain as long as he can be of help.

Speakers Declare B.C. Behind Times

G. G. McGeer Says Western People Asleep at the Switch

VANCOUVER (CP)—British Columbia is miles behind the eastern provinces in its race for a share of Canada's $300,000,000 annual tourist business, G. G. McGeer, Liberal member of Parliament for Vancouver Burrard, said here yesterday.

Mr. McGeer, former Mayor of Vancouver and member of the British Columbia Legislature, arrived in Vancouver to spend the short Easter recess of the Dominion Parliament.

"We are miles behind the rest of Canada, yet British Columbia has a hundred times better tourist attractions than the east," he told interviewers.

"Ontario spends $30,000,000 a year for roads—Quebec has voted $50,000,000—and even the little Maritimes are spending more money than British Columbia.

"We are not getting anywhere near our share and the total should be $500,000,000 instead of $300,000,000.

"Vancouver is asleep at the switch."

Mr. McGeer said every British Columbia Member of Parliament was "solidly behind" Premier Pattullo for his case for more equitable treatment for British Columbia and the Alaska-Yukon Highway proposal.

R. Rowe Holland Says Liquor Laws of Province Must Be Revised

VANCOUVER (CP) — R. A. Hutchison, secretary-manager of the Vancouver Tourist Association, believes Vancouver and the rest of British Columbia can expect "the greatest tourist business in the history of the industry" this summer.

Addressing directors of the association, Hutchison said in automobile traffic alone, influx of Americans through lower mainland customs ports during the first three months this year had exceeded the corresponding period of 1937 by 36 per cent.

Transportation companies were expecting the greatest tourist year since 1929.

Hutchison said advertising was being carried out on a larger scale than ever before, "due to increased interest of the federal and provincial governments and public-spirited organizations."

He said five inquiries had been received during the past week from industries wishing to establish plants in British Columbia.

R. Rowe Holland, a director of the association, said British Columbia liquor laws were "five to ten years behind the times." He said Vancouver and the province had to "do something to encourage tourists," and he urged revision of liquor laws, "especially to attract tourists from the United States."

Mrs. Stan Laurel Is Out On Bail

Comedian's Wife Charged After Wild Drive in Beverly Hills

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) —Vera Shuvalova, wife of Comedian Stan Laurel, was released by police on $500 bail early today after a rib-cracking drive in a rented automobile.

Detective Sergeant Bob Mannagh reported the blonde Russian actress, Mrs. Laurel No. 3, struck two parked cars on Beverly Drive, then continued to within a block of her home, where she crashed into a tree.

The officer experienced some difficulty in freeing Mrs. Laurel from the wreck. He booked her on suspicion of hit-and-run, reckless driving, and driving without an operator's license.

Only yesterday she accompanied Laurel to court when he resisted the demand of his first wife for $1,355 monthly support of their 10-year-old daughter. Laurel said he made $160,000 a year, but alimony, commissions and taxes took most of it.

DEATH THREAT TO RAIL HEAD

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—W. P. Kenney, president of the Great Northern Railway, received an extortion note about a week ago demanding $100,000 under penalty of kidnapping, it became known today.

Kenney was threatened with death if the money was not paid, and other threats were made against the railroad.

A letter demanding the $100,000 was delivered April 6 at the city ticket office of the road in Minneapolis. Later in the day it was sent to the road's general offices in St. Paul, without being opened.

When its contents were disclosed, a guard was immediately put around Kenney's home and federal agents entered the case.

U.S. Now Planning Biggest Warships

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senator H. T. Bone, Democrat, Washington state, said today he was informed the United States navy has under consideration plans for two 50,000-ton battleships which will mount at least nine 18-inch guns.

Admiral William D. Leahy, Chief of Naval Operations, recently asked the Senate committee to permit construction of three 45,000-ton dreadnaughts.

But Mr. Bone said he understood the naval chiefs were contemplating instead the possibility of building two large ships.

Replying to a question in the House of Commons in London Tuesday the Dominions Secretary said: "No communications have been received from the New Zealand government or any other Dominion expressing disagreement with the general policy on foreign affairs pursued by His Majesty's Government.

and realizing the value of the discovery showed him how to stake the claims.

Father Anthony stumbled against his lucky boulder on March 4. Since then there has been a rush to McBride Bay from nearby parts of the coast, joined in by some of the most recent arrivals at Zeballos. The country for some four miles along the coast and inland from Father Anthony's boulder has already been staked. Outcroppings of rich veins picked up in various places over this area are taken to indicate an extensive and highly mineralized field.

Samples of ore from the new field arrived here on the Princess Maquinna and are being assayed. The ore is said to be identical with that coming from Zeballos.

Settlers have been joined with mining men along the coast in congratulating Father Anthony on his find. They said they rejoiced that the area around the discovery had been staked by the priest and is now held by him as they look to see it bring him great wealth.

Spanish Rebels Drive to Sea

Franco's Troops Capture Chert, 14 Miles From Mediterranean Coast

With the Insurgents in Spain (AP)—The insurgent drive toward the Mediterranean quickened its pace today on the southern sector and Gen. Franco's troops captured Chert, only 14 miles from the coastal city of Vinaroz.

Chert, three miles north of San Mateo, was strongly defended by government infantry, supported by artillery and airplanes.

On the front farther north the insurgent command announced a crushing defeat had been inflicted on a strong government force that counter attacked in the Balaguer sector.

Aragonese troops which crossed the Segre River by pontoon bridge at Balaguer at first lost ground under a violent attack from the enemy's tanks, artillery and aviation, which lasted 12 hours.

The insurgents bringing their own artillery and aviation into action reported, however, the government militia finally was forced to fall back.

Insurgents said they buried 600 of the enemy dead.

Earlier reports from Hendaye, on the French border, today told how the insurgents had blasted their way through the government's last mountain defences on the southern sector of the Catalan front, and started their drive downhill toward the little port of Vinaroz on the Mediterranean.

Under cover of artillery fire, Gen. Miguel Aranda took the offensive from a narrow position he had spent days in preparing—an area from Morella to the San Mateo Highway, on the southwestern edge of Catalonia.

By nightfall the government line was broken, insurgent dispatches said, and government militiamen were retreating southwest to Albocacer. Gen. Aranda's operations now have spread from his starting point to cover a 10-mile front. He threatens also to encircle the rough oblong between Teruel and Mont Alban, Castellote and Morella—an area of about 75 square miles.

SHOT FIRED IN DANISH HOUSE

Schleswig Nazi Aims at Ceiling; Scatters Leaflets; Is Arrested

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP)—A pistol shot aimed at the ceiling signalled the release of a shower of Nazi leaflets at the heads of members of parliament today as they were debating a new immigration bill.

Erik Westergaard, 23, a Danish Nazi from Bovrup, North Schleswig, fired the shot during an address by the minister of justice, M. Steincke.

Westergaard, in Nazi uniform and wearing swastika badges, then poured leaflets headed "High Treason" from the public gallery as a demonstration against parliamentarianism Firtz Clausen, Danish Nazi leader, ordered the leaflets printed two days ago.

Westergaard was arrested.

Texas Murderers May Have Met Mrs. W. G. Frome and Daughter in Mexico

EL PASO, Tex (AP)—Sheriff Chris Fox said today he was investigating a report Mrs. Weston G. Frome and her daughter, Nancy, may have met their slayers in a Juarez Mexico, cabaret two nights before they left El Paso for Parris Island, S.C.

An employee of one of the largest night clubs in Juarez told the sheriff the Frome women became acquainted with two men while having dinner the night of March 28.

The employee identified the women from pictures.

He told the sheriff Mrs. Frome and Nancy were sitting at a table when two men introduced themselves as Californians and asked them to dance. The invitation was accepted.

Mrs. Frome and Nancy are known to have made two trips to Juarez while waiting for their automobile to be repaired.

The mother, 46, and the daughter, 23, were killed near Van Horn, Texas.

GREY OWL, LOVER OF ANIMALS, DIES

of fur-bearing animals, Grey Owl turned to a new life.

He wrote books and articles, pleading for conservation of game. He built a wild life sanctuary in the Prince Albert National Park and called it Beaver Lodge, where he placed his favorite beavers, Jellyroll and Rawhide.

Visitors to Beaver Lodge, who included the late Bliss Carmen, Canadian poet, heard the story of the friendly Grey Owl's aim in life after his Quebec trapping experiences.

"Then I realized what a crime we trappers were committing against nature that had been so bountiful," Grey Owl related. "I dedicated my life at that moment to conservation of game. All my books are to teach people something of animal life."

His recent seven-weeks tour of the British Isles was marked by the refusal of the British Broadcasting Corporation to allow Grey Owl to lecture against "blood sports" such as fox hunting. He refused to alter his address, because he sincerely believed such sports were not humane, and wished to turn children's minds from them.

The United Kingdom tour, however, brought its proud moments, especially his meeting with King George VI. The King, Grey Owl said later, was "all for" game conservation.

And he added:

"I started as a poor frightened savage on a stage in a theatre in London in 1906 with Buffalo Bill and I ended up talking to King George in Buckingham Palace."

His tours, lectures and introductions to the prominent people of Britain and United States appealed to Grey Owl, but not as strongly as Saskatchewan's timbered north country. When he landed in New York from England, Grey Owl hurried back to Beaver Lodge, his young daughter, Shirley Dawn, "and our two best friends, our beavers."

Grey Owl died true to his Indian teachings. Throughout his life he had been skeptical of Christianity. He held Indians should not be Christianized at the expense of their own ancient code of morality and justice.

CHINESE FORCES GROW AS CENTRAL BATTLE SPREADS

At Taierhchwang, Chinese rolled the latest type of German anti-tank guns and European field pieces into action. Chinese planes were as fast as any displayed by the Japanese.

GREAT MANPOWER

With unlimited manpower at their command, the Chinese are tapping such power directly at the source, whereas the Japanese are confronted with the problem of great expense in bringing in reinforcements. Estimates of Chinese now under arms run to 4,000,000, with a good supply of small arms and machine-guns.

Geographically, the Chinese have an increasing advantage in developing resistance as the Japanese are spread out over China's more than 3,000,000 square miles. The long fingers of Japanese penetration are being cut steadily by guerilla raids, reaching to the very outskirts of Shanghai.

Future of China's reinvigorated resistance may depend in the last analysis, however, on the extent to which China can finance continued armament and the extent to which irregular units effectively can continue to destroy Japanese communications.

Vancouver Soon Will Register Its Bicycles

VANCOUVER (CP) — Bicycles using Vancouver streets will have to be registered after May 1. On that date the city's new bicycle by-law, adopted yesterday by the city council, will come into effect. King and Queen See Army Power

ALDERSHOT, Eng (AP)—The King and Queen Tuesday watched the mechanized army demonstrate its fire power and mobility in a mimic battle here. They gazed through a haze of smoke and dust, thrown up by exploding shells, at the array of tanks, armored cars, field and machine guns engaged in the manoeuvres.

Raindrops and fog cannot form unless there is dust in the atmosphere.

Wm. A. Jones In Dewdney Contest

Agassiz Druggist Chosen Conservative Candidate in Provincial By-election

MISSION, B.C. (CP)—William A. Jones, druggist of Agassiz, will represent the Conservative Party in the forthcoming provincial by-election in Dewdney riding.

The by-election, necessitated by the recent death of Dr. Frank Patterson, Conservative leader, will be held some time in May.

Mr. Jones was the unanimous choice of the 97 delegates of the Dewdney riding Conservative Association, who attended a nomination meeting here Tuesday.

The meeting, held in the hall where Dr. Patterson was nominated for the general election of June, 1937, honored his memory by a minute's silence.

Mr. Jones was nominated by L. R. Wilson of Mission, president of the Associated Boards of Trade of the Fraser Valley and Lower Mainland, and seconded by A. E. R. Craig of Agassiz.

Born in Owen Sound, Ont., the candidate has lived in Dewdney for 25 years, is reeve of Kent Municipality, and past president of the Dewdney Conservative Association.

Among the several Conservative members of the Provincial Legislature at the meeting were Herbert Anscomb, Victoria.

Griesbach Says Goods Dumped

EDMONTON (CP) — Business recession in the United States has led to "dumping" of merchandise in Canada, according to Senator W. A. Griesbach, who returned to his home here Tuesday from Ottawa for the Easter recess of Parliament.

"American textiles," he said, "are coming in large quantities and eastern textile concerns are laying off men and running part time," he said.

"It is reported eastern wholesalers in the boot trade are being offered U.S. boots at 89 cents a pair when the Canadian manufactured price for the similar boot is somewhat over $3."

The only remedy, said Senator Griesbach, was imposition of stiff duties to prevent the dumping of goods at prices below the home price.

Government House In Ontario For Sale

TORONTO (CP)—An order-in-council passed by the Ontario government Tuesday authorizes the Department of Public Works under Hon. Colin A. Campbell to advertise immediately for tenders for the purchase of Chorley Park, official residence of Ontario's lieutenant-governors, closed last December on orders from Premier Hepburn.

C. M. Schwab May Get No Salary

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—Charles M. Schwab, chairman of the board of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, was requested at the annual stockholders' meeting Tuesday to turn back his $200,000 annual salary if the corporation should fail to declare a common stock dividend in the current quarter.

Blaylock For Railway Union

Vice-president of Consolidated Mining Co. Supports Canadian Merger

MONTREAL (CP) — Multiple taxation and overlapping in processes of Canadian government were attacked and unification of the two great railway systems was recommended in an address before a Montreal service club Tuesday by S. G. Blaylock of Trail, B.C., vice-president and general manager of the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company of Canada Ltd.

"We have been so concerned about cutting our costs, improving our products and increasing both the volume and the variety of our production that we have been blind to the steady increase of indirect costs to a point where they threaten a complete sterilization of industrial effort, which would rapidly be followed by stagnation or death of our present civilization," Mr. Blaylock said.

"Unification for operation" is the only solution for the problems of mounting railway debts, said Mr. Blaylock.

No Early Scheme For Immigration

LONDON (CP-Havas) — There has been no change in Canadian immigration regulations which would permit an influx of British citizens through government assistance, Dominions Secretary Malcolm MacDonald told the House of Commons Tuesday.

His statement was in reply to a question asked by Harry Day, Labor, as to whether the government would make representations to Canada in order that a larger number of British citizens could enter Canada

"At the time of the Imperial Conference last year it was indicated the Canadian Government felt the time had not arrived when they would be in a position to cooperate with the United Kingdom in resuming government-assisted migration," Mr. MacDonald said. "Since then nothing has occurred to lead me to believe the position in that respect has been altered."

Chemists report that full recovery in the nation's export trade in chemicals has been achieved.

U.S. Said to Hold Key to Big War

TOKIO (AP) — The United States, Rear-Admiral Tota Ishimaru asserted Tuesday, holds the key to the position whether there will be a world war in the near future.

Regarded by Japan as one of her most authoritative naval experts, Admiral Ishimaru said in an interview "the stage is all set for an outbreak which may come in 1939."

"England, France and Russia stand on one side, Germany, Japan and Italy on the other," he said. "Strength is almost equally balanced. I believe the former trio would attack Japan now, using Japan's China policy as a pretext, if they could be sure of American support. Hence, the United States is the decisive factor."

Vice versa, he asserted Japan, Germany and Italy might be forced to take the offensive if their rivals exerted pressure. He ridiculed the possibility of war betwetn the United States and Japan alone.

"No intelligent Japanese believes that likely," he said.

Capt. A. S. Wilson Dies in London

LONDON (AP) — Captain Arthur S. Wilson, 69, racehorse owner and former member of Parliament, died Tuesday.

Capt. Wilson's death recalls the famous 1890 Baccarat scandal, involving charges of card creating at a house party attended by King Edward VII, then the Prince of Wales.

It was given at Tranby Croft, home of Capt. Wilson's parents. Col. Sir William Gordon Cumming, officer of the Scots Guards, was accused of cheating at cards. Protesting his innocence, he signed a pledge never to play again.

The story leaked out and Cumming sued Wilson's mother and four others for slander. The defendants won a verdict after a hearing in which King Edward testified he had not seen any cheating, but had to believe Cumming's accusers because "there were five of them."

Cumming died eight years ago.

MAGISTRATE RESIGNS

TRAIL, B.C. (CP)—Magistrate R. A. D. West of nearby Castlegar, said today he was "resigning my my position as magistrate for purely personal reasons after serving for the past seven years in that capacity." Details of the resignation were not available.

Extortion Charge Heard in Detroit

DETROIT (AP)—An indictment charging Wesley Earl Gray, 22, with attempting to extort $10,000 from Henry and Edsel Ford was returned here Tuesday by a federal grand jury.

Federal Bureau of Investigation Agents said Gray gave himself up at San Angelo, Texas, March 28, after he had been sought for five months. They said he wrote an extortion letter to the Fords last November 6.

MACKENZIE TO SPEAK

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—
And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Harmful poisons go into the body, and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

A mere bowel movement doesn't always get at the cause. You need something that works on the liver as well. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless and gentle, they make the bile flow freely. They do the work of calomel but have no calomel or mercury in them. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name! Stubbornly refuse anything else. 25c

Another Heligoland?

RT. HON. A. DUFF COOPER, FIRST Lord of the Admiralty, told the British House of Commons today that Germany is establishing a fortified naval base on the Island of Sylt in the North Sea, off the coast of German Schleswig-Holstein. A question brought from the Minister the statement that the Admiralty "have considered all the implications arising from this new development." Mr. Cooper declined to commit himself "without notice" when asked if Germany had notified Great Britain of her intention to build the base in question in compliance with the terms of the Anglo-German naval treaty.

It will be remembered that Germany's "dagger" at Britain, the fortress of Heligoland, was completely dismantled after the war and the Treaty of Versailles was supposed to have ended its usefulness as such for all time. Germany already has re-established it for use again as of old. Heligoland of course, was a British island until 1890, when the Salisbury government traded it to Germany for an understanding that British influence would be "supreme" in the island of Zanzibar. After that it became part of German Schleswig-Holstein. The battle of Heligoland Bight—the first important naval engagement in the Great War; it resulted in a British victory—was fought on August 28, 1914. The Island of Sylt is 22 miles long, varying in width from half a mile to eight miles, and lies just off the German-Danish border.

The announcement made by Mr. Duff Cooper is additional evidence that Reichsfuehrer Hitler proposes to follow out such programs—no matter what form they may take—as he and his most intimate colleagues consider will fit in with the general Pan-Germanic dream. It is a procedure not pleasant to contemplate; but it is difficult to know what can be done about it unless the three great democracies, aided by Russia—and Italy, perhaps, in view of what is going on between her and Great Britain—try some new method of consultation that will make Germany see sense in her own behalf.

The Walker Cup Selection

WILL THE BRITISH WALKER CUP team cut the unbroken string of losses by defeating the United States squad at the famous St. Andrews course in Scotland next June? This is the pertinent question which Mr. Alec C. Rose, editor of the Pacific Coast Golfer and Poloist — himself a native and golfing product of the land of the heather—has put to the golfing fraternity in general.

Mr. Rose naturally does not know the answer to the inquiry he makes. He observed some weeks ago, however, that it was about time the selection committee on the other side of the pond departed from its orthodox procedure and tried a new method of choosing its representatives for this important international golfing classic. A dispatch from London yesterday carried with it a definite intimation that the team for the coming battle has been selected for trial by the Royal and Ancient Club solely on what is considered sheer merit alone. Sartorial pulchritude and social status have cut no figure in the committee's plans. Among the 25 trialists are an Irish bartender, a St. Andrews cigar store clerk, and a soldier of the Welsh Guards. On May 5 and 6 the mixed squad will fight it out for the much-coveted places on the final selection for the engagement with their American cousins in the first week of June.

Some of the London sports writers were reported to have figuratively thrown up their hands in horror when they first heard of the proposed change of tactics. They will probably tear their hair more viciously than ever now they have learned that a "southpaw" is on the preferred list—Ivor Thomas of Liverpool, who reached the sixth round of the British Amateur Championship in 1933. But a win for Britain is long overdue. So may the battle of June see the jinx broken.

What of Mr. Stevens?

CAN IT BE THAT BRITISH COLUMBIA'S own Harry Stevens is wondering whether he could land the Conservative Party's leadership if he really wanted it? Hon. H. H. is saying nothing about it; but this is not to suggest that it is far removed from the realm of his ambitions. And Mr. Stevens has many political and personal friends on the Dominion's electoral roll. He may well be the dark horse who will stalk across the platform at the forthcoming national convention of the party to which he used to belong. One thing can be said, and that is, if he is nursing any aspirations of this sort, he already has plenty of company.

Although Mr. Stevens broke with Mr. Bennett and the Conservative Party, he has been very careful to avoid disparaging remarks about either, no matter what, on occasion, his innermost thoughts may have been. On the contrary, only the other day he came out of his shell and displayed some of his old vigor and political form to tell the government in plain language what he thought about it, employing terms peculiarly harmonious with those of Mr. Bennett and other Conservative speakers—and his old friends clapped and cheered as had been their wont when the erstwhile Minister of Trade and Commerce rose in his seat on the ministerial side of the House. There was no guarantee in that apparent enthusiastic approval, of course, that his candidature for the post now vacant would be either furthered or welcomed.

Mr. Stevens nevertheless is being mentioned in certain influential quarters as the man with the "ginger" which the Conservative Party so obviously lacks. Nor must it be forgotten that although he is the lone representative in Parliament of the Reconstructionist Party he founded, his followers gave his cause 384,000 votes at the polls in 1935—or practically the same total secured by the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation to net that party seven seats. How many supporters he could wean away from the nonpartizan stand and merge them with himself in the Conservative Party is another matter. It is a fact, however, that thousands of votes which went to Reconstructionist Party candidates helped to bring about the defeat of several Bennett standard-bearers in 1935.

From Old Master Izaak

TO IZAAK WALTON HIMSELF, THE New York Times has turned for a quotation that will give needed comfort to many who at this Easter season will make their first venture of the year with rod and reel to stream and inlet. "And no man is born an artist," wrote the old master Izaak, "so no man is born an angler." These be arts which must be born of patience and long apprenticeship. Today, as we put the finishing touches on our plans for a long week-end in our Island outdoors, it will profit us to recall this wisdom from the 17th century.

But no ardent follower of the fish knows better than did the Compleat Angler that there is far more to fishing than filling of the creel. If one is attune to the spring wind, the benefaction of the deep pool and the rush of the swift water, and alive to the quickening music of bird song and the other voices of meadow and woodland, he will find angling "to be like the virtue of humility, which has a calmness of spirit and a world of other blessings attending upon it."

In a jangling world there is the touch of healing and of a return to the realities on the trout stream, and there, too, may be found a philosophy applicable in a more workaday world. With Walton we can perhaps learn to say:

And when the timorous trout I wait
To take, and he devours my bait,
How poor a thing sometimes I find
Will captivate a greedy mind:
And when none bite, I praise the wise
Whom vain allurements ne'er surprise.

Dictator Dignity

ONE OF THE MOST AMAZING THINGS about the dictatorships is the "what-a-man" attitude the dictators adopt toward themselves. In this country they would be laughed out of public life before they got started. But in their own totalitarian states the edict is that the Great Man is not to be a target of the written, the drawn or the spoken smart crack—no matter how innocent the intent. And everyone knows what happens when a dictator's edict is broken.

The Great Men would like to spread the illusion of their magnificence over the globe. They are "demanding" the British Government prevent British newspapers printing cartoons and articles critical or tending to make people laugh at them. They tried it not long ago in Cuba when the Italian and German ministers protested against publication of caricatures of Mussolini and Hitler in the weekly magazine Bohemia and the newspaper Patria. The ministers described the caricatures as "insulting." But the Cuban courts dismissed the complaint.

It is gratifying to know that such caricatures of Herr Hitler and Il Duce are not insulting. Some people think the only good thing about the dictators is the laugh to be had when a bright caricaturist decides to take them "for a ride."

Notes

A Neapolitian, reading while eating, swallowed a small electric bulb. He may be classed as a light eater.

Germany provides "marriage loans" so that young couples may wed early. Probably, in its economic stress, hoping that two can live as cheaply as one.

Jockeys and professional sport players may deduct the cost of uniforms from income tax returns. We will bet a new potato that farmers cannot do the same with their overalls.

RULE II AT THE ATHENAEUM

From the London Observer

The English are a very odd people. In France, when they decide to recognize greatness, the subject of attention is elected during life with all possible pomp to the Academic Francaise. He becomes ipso facto an immortal, and may be subsequently entered as such in the Pantheon.

In this country, on the other hand, our heroes slip casually into their immortality by way of Rule II of the Athenaeum Club. A bare notice affixed on a board in the entrance to the club informs such persons as care to notice that two or three more have entered Valhalla.

On the three elected last week two happened to be the Prime Minister and Lord Nuffield. The fact of this remarkable accession to the strength of the club was, incidentally, mentioned here and there. But nobody appeared to be struck by the consistent (and endearing) absurdity of the English, who recognize their great men by stealth and almost blush to learn that the fact of recognition runs a risk of becoming famous.

Loose Ends

By BRUCE HUTCHISON

IN THE WOODS

IT HAS always seemed to me that people who don't have a cabin in the woods never really know the progress of the seasons; never really know when spring comes. Mind you, spring has just come in the woods. It has arrived only a few days ago and has hardly settled down yet; it is just looking about, wondering whether it has come too early. The new ferns are still coiled up like little elephants' trunks, and the first trilliums are just out, and the dead bracken of last year lies over the earth like a brown sheet, with a matting of dried maple leaves, and there is no stirring of life at all, except the catkins of the alders and the wistful song of a little brown bird.

A cabin waiting for you in the woods is like a faithful friend, eager to see you back again. All through the winter it has waited there, in the rain and the snow; waited for this day when it would be opened again to the sunlight and the air and the sound of human voices and the warmth of fires and the smell of cooking. Nothing has been changed since you closed it with a sigh last autumn. Even the newspapers of last October are still on the table, and it is amusing, if a little melancholy to look them over again.

NEWS

THE PAPERS say that the Chinese are beating the Japanese at Shanghai and will never surrender the city. The British government is going to do something to stop Franco's outrages in the Mediterranean, where "pirate" submarines (supplied by Italy) have been attacking British shipping, and Britain won't stand for any more nonsense from Mussolini. Stocks have broken on the New York market but it doesn't mean anything, the experts say. It doesn't mean a depression or unemployment or anything, and, besides, Mr. Roosevelt is going to fix it all up.

Best of all is to get out into the woods in the spring with an axe, clearing away the winter's windfalls, the weaker trees that must make way for the stronger. At such a time I am always sorry for fellows who have only a golf club to swing while I have a double-bitted axe, sharp as a razor. With what a sweet sound it bites into the wood! And how glorious is the smell of sap that rises out of the tree, mixed with the smell of the warming damp earth! And then the smell of wood fires as we burn the brush, burn huge piles of it, such as the peasantry of Europe walk miles to gather in faggots for fuel.

As I think of the bent old women I have seen on the plains of Hungary and France, bringing home a few twigs to cook their meals, my conscience rebels at this destruction, but there is plenty of wood left for all the chopping I shall care to do this year. And all around the young forest is surging up. The trees that were saplings 20 years ago are 50 feet high or more, and we shall never lack for fuel without ever chopping down a tree, for nature fells them when their time comes, letting the fit survive, making the forest strong, where we conduct our human society on the opposite principle and make the whole weak.

REWARDS

YES, I AM sorry for fellows who have only golf clubs to swing out on a golf course where the public can look on, where caddies can sniff and people shout "fore" at you, and you must observe absurd rules. After you have finished, what have you to show for it, except a score card and a drink in the locker room? Whereas after you have swung an axe in these pungent spring woods you have a heaping pile of hot ashes to show for it and the knowledge that you have removed a fire hazard from the forest and, by thinning it, have helped it to grow faster and stronger; and you have also some logs that will crackle in the fireplace next autumn, long after the heat of the 19th hole has completely disappeared, leaving only the bottle.

It is surprising how much work a man can find to do in a summer camp and how willingly he does it. Fellows who wouldn't stir a hand in town, who spend their time in an easychair while their wives slave, fellows who grow fat and gross during the winter, will suddenly develop an incredible energy as soon as the camp is opened. They will rake up brush, paint verandas, and even spread the bedding out to dry or scrub floors like a woman.

Watch also the loving tenderness they will waste on their worthless boats! Watch them scrape and putty and paint with infinite care and patience, as if they were painting an immortal masterpiece, a mural for some cathedral. Watch a business man who has secretaries and underlings to order about all week, who never stirs farther than to push a button — watch him, in ragged clothes, with sandpaper and putty, lying on his back and squirming under his boat, ruining his pampered hands, wrenching his back and yet blissful in his misery.

It is for the opportunity to suffer like this out in the woods that he labors in the office and makes himself a success. It is in order to get away from the world that he masters it. It is in order to labor here like the poorest working man that he makes himself a captain of industry. This—hard work, a wrenched back and ruined hands—is the reward of his long and distinguished career. It is reward enough for any man.

SIX PROVINCES AND THE TARIFF

From Winnipeg Free Press

Since last November the Rowell Commission has heard evidence in six Canadian provinces. Each of the six complained against the tariff. One of the protests was unofficial because the Alberta government did not testify. But private citizens of Alberta put the same argument as was heard elsewhere. Unanimous opinion so far is that the tariff causes a serious loss of income to every part of Canada but Ontario and Quebec. The loss varies in size. Saskatchewan, wholly a farming province, is harder hit than British Columbia, where secondary industries are important. But four western and two maritime provinces agree in saving that the so-called "national policy" is a disaster so far as they are concerned.

Is "Dope" Part Of Japanese Peril?

IN THE wake of the Japanese war machine in China, follows a forced increase in opium-poppy production. Morphine factories are started at once in conquered provinces. The heroin output from one Manchukuo factory alone is 15 times the world's legitimate needs. Japan itself is almost free from drug addiction. Most of this crop of evil drugs is sent to this continent.

Frank C. Waldrop, in an article, "Public Enemy No. 1—Dope," in May Cosmopolitan, reveals these facts, and says that the traffic in evil drugs is increasing at a fearful rate.

"Narcotics are being used by Japan as an instrument of national policy to weaken the Chinese race," Waldrop goes on. "This industry has spread its tentacles through the Far East, and has direct connections with the narcotic rings in Europe and America. The United States is the big money market, and the objective of every drug syndicate.

"Seizures of heroin, morphine, cocaine and other foreign narcotics," the writer says, "have increased at American borders almost 300 per cent in three years. Police Chief Quinn of San Francisco estimates that $1,500,000 worth of dope is sold daily in the United States, and that a large part of this supply comes from Japanese-controlled areas."

Not all the drug menace, however, is from across the Pacific, Waldrop points out. An equally grave problem is home-grown marihuana, harvested in this country by the ton and distributed even to school children.

As to the growing menace of marihuana, Harry J. Anslinger, chief of the U.S. Bureau of Narcotics, is quoted:

"In 1936, Narcotics Bureau agents seized 386 tons of growing plants and dried bulk marihuana and 15,715 cigarettes—an increase of 97 per cent over 1935."

It causes emotional instability, as was revealed in the recent trial of two New Jersey girls for the killing of a bus driver.

"For whom were these tons of madness grown?" Mr. Waldrop asks.

"Many of them were grown for our school children, our boys and girls; for youngsters with a nickel to spend on a 'reefer,' a quarter with which to 'throw a party,' instead of buy hot lunch."

Stricter law enforcement and long jail sentences for drug racketeers is the immediate need, Waldrop says.

MARKET RECESSIONS

A broad survey of the 19 previous depressions in the U.S. since 1857 and accompanying stock market declines for which there is available data reveals that the present decline in business activity now approximates that experienced in previous periods of severe depression and that, on past experience, the decline in the stock market has discounted present low levels of business activity. The survey has just been released by the American Institute of Finance. Current decline in business activity has already exceeded in extent declines seen in all previous periods of minor and moderately severe depression. Excluding the extraordinary 1929-33 depression, the average decline in the preceding nine severe depressions has been 31 per cent compared with the current decline of 30 per cent. In such previous depressions business declined to between 77 per cent to 82 per cent of normal, compared with the present level of 77.7 per cent. The current stock market decline is substantially in excess of any seen in previous periods of minor depression. It is more than 65 per cent greater than the average stock market decline in periods of moderately severe depressions.

RESIGNATION!

To the Editor:—An editorial in the Times (April 6) suggests that Taylor, M.P. at Ottawa should resign because he no longer is a member of the political party which elected him. He was expelled, we are informed. Surely the Times is aware of the regrettable fact that there is a type of politician, once they get their snout in the public trough the word "resignation" has no meaning for them. The leech never falls from the flesh until full of blood, and a hungry dog is loth to give up a bone.

Letters to The Editor

2,700 DAILY DIRECT TAXES

To the Editor: — Newspaper comments on the Dunning-Bennett tilt as to whether banks create credit in excess of their cash show that many are beginning to discover how money is created.

The public have yet to understand how all this affects them.

It is remarkable that financial propaganda has survived so long in face of facts, easily verified.

One wonders what Mr. Bennett, while Prime Minister, thought of his Secretary of State, who said, "the cheque system enables the banks to create money at will for many hundreds of millions of dollars in excess of their note issues."

The question is, should that money belong to those who make the ledger entries or to the nation whose people make the goods which give that money its value?

What comes as a shock to many is to learn that banks also destroy money, not by making bonfires of dollar bills but by curtailing loans and selling securities thus arbitrarily reducing the volume of money immediately available to industry.

This "sound" banking practice becomes necessary periodically to enable the system to maintain a "safe" ratio of cash to loans, a policy with which local branches are only indirectly concerned. Its effect is to compel industry to adjust itself to an increase or decrease of purchasing power, irrespective of the country's needs.

It is of little use to point a finger at Mr. Bennett and others who may agree with him, for not so long ago we all thought the same. What is more to the point is to put the responsibility for its continuance where it rightly belongs, viz., on the shoulders of each one of us, for we have the democratic means of demanding a change. It won't come otherwise. At present more than 90 per cent of our money is this cheque book variety and in order for the money lender to remain in business he has got to keep us or our government continually borrowing "his credit." In other words he has got to maintain debt, contrary to the desire of the people who now have some 80 per cent of their real wealth mortgaged to financial institutions.

The subtle means of encouraging borrowing are many, not the least evident of which is propaganda based either on the desire for progress or on fear. In the first, the appeal has a charitable guise, such as to remove slums, to "assist" in building loans, to which church and ex-servicemen's journals fall unconscious dupes. The press already knows its master.... The second, even more insidious, fosters the need for more defence.

Whatever the type, it is obvious that the limit to which we would better conditions depends not on what we can do physically but on what we may do financially. Finance becomes our dictator, and we its slaves.

Every blast at Albert Head is an audible reminder that our irrepayable debt is increasing and with it the interest and therefore the taxation.

The average family now pays some 2,700 indirect taxes daily, and do those who protested the 50 cents direct radio tax know how many times 50 cents is being added by our defence program?

And it does not end there, for apart from maintenance, defence means are as changeable as women's fashions.

There must come an end to borrowing. And then what?

Will we be able to do nothing because we cannot borrow any more?

If we demand debt-free money backed by our works and production there would be no restriction placed on science, and I suggest, we could then if we wished make this coast impregnable against any one nation or aggregation of nations.

A. H. JUKES, Major.

RADIO LICENSES

To the Editor: — The Radio Commission has, in spite of public protest, carried out their idea of raising radio license to $2.50 a year. The Radio Commission is doing exactly what Hitler and Mussolini are doing over in Europe. Are we radio fans going to lay down and be trodden under the heel of the Radio Commission?

As I said in a previous letter the present fee for a radio license is far too much; it is only worth a dollar. What are we getting for our money anyway? Nothing but a lot of advertising and jazz. All the decent music comes from American stations. If we in Canada were paying our radio license fee to the American Radio Commission I would not mind. The concerts we get from the States are worth the extra 50c. Believe me, I do not think for a minute that the Radio Commission is going to stop at this one raise. In a couple of years' time, maybe less, it will be another 50c, and so on and so forth. I can only say that it is my hope that radio fans will come into action and raise such a protest that the Radio Commission will find that they have bitten off more than they can chew.

Chapter Gift Of Tooth Brushes

A gross of tooth brushes will be sent to Rollo, in the Peace River district, by the members of H.M.S. Resolution Chapter, I.O.D.E., in response to an appeal from Miss Kathleen Shepherd, public health nurse at that point.

This decision was made at the monthly meeting of the chapter, held last night at the home of the Misses Doris and Marjorie Holmes, Falkland Road, Miss Jean McLaren, the regent in the chair.

It was reported that a substantial sum had been raised by means of the bridge party held in the I.O.D.E. rooms on April 8.

Mrs. O'Halloran reported a layette given to a needy family. Contributions of 25c per member were requested for the Miss Gordon scholarship fund.

Miss M. Holmes read an interesting extract on the early explorers of the Pacific from the book, "Unrolling the Map."

Last Record Shows Higher Total For Canada

The latest annual report of vital statistics of the Dominion of Canada show a new high which has never been surpassed in the marriage rate of the nation.

The rate per 1,000 population was 7.5 in comparison with the preceding year's rate of 7.2. The total number of marriages was 59,199, with the number of the last year being 56,926. The rate of 7.5 was equalled from the years 1926 to 1930. At this time the number of marriages was 53,154. Since that time the rate has been as low as 6.3, the lowest year being 1932. These marriages and marriage rates were taken from the registration area of the past 15 years.

In British Columbia the month for the greater number of marriages was June with 657 being performed. March proved the unpopular month with only 261 taking place. The second highest month in the popularity of marrying was October, when 572 were performed.

The number of marriages in Victoria for the past year has never been exceeded during the past 10 years. The number was 367, with the lowest number taking place in 1932, when 265 took place.

Weddings

MILLAR—STEVEN

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kerrone, Mary Street, Duncan, when Rev. W. H. Burns united in marriage Lillian, youngest daughter of Mr. John Steven and the late Mrs. Steven, Victoria, and John Millar, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Millar, Ladysmith.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and looked very smart in a suit of navy blue, with white sheer blouse, small hat and veil, and corsage bouquet of pink and red carnations.

After the ceremony a reception was held for immediate friends and relatives of the young couple. The honeymoon is being spent in Victoria, and on their return Mr. and Mrs. Millar will reside in Duncan.

HAY—NEILSON

The marriage took place yesterday afternoon, at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. Peter McNabb, Cedar Hill Road, of Jessie, second daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Neilson, Loaninghill, Broxburn, Scotland, to Mr. George Hay, third son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Hay, Newton, Forfarshire, Scotland. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Margaret Neilson, and Mr. Robert Smith, brother-in-law of the bride, was best man. A quiet reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, Dublin Street, after which the bride and groom left on the afternoon boat for Seattle. On their return to Victoria they will take up residence on Wark Street.

NAYSMITH—PETTICREW

In the vestry of the First United Church last night, Rev. W. G. Wilson, D.D., united in marriage Margaret Fleming, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Petticrew, 133 Rendall Street, and Mr. John Naysmith of Victoria, formerly of Dalkeith, Scotland.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was an attractive figure in her frock of blue crepe, with hat to match, and was attended by her sister, Miss Wilhelmina Petticrew, who wore a gown of net over floral crepe and a hat to match. Mr. William Johnson supported the bridegroom.

Relatives and a few old friends were welcomed at the informal reception held at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Petticrew receiving the guests. A buffet supper was served from a table decorated with pink and mauve sweet peas and tall white tapers, the bride cutting the wedding cake. Assisting in pouring tea were Miss Beth Ramsay and Miss Peggy McKenzie.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Naysmith left for a honeymoon trip to Vancouver and Portland, the bride traveling in a smart blue fleck suit, with accessories. On their return they will make their home in James Bay.

DICKINSON—McKAY

At a quiet home wedding yesterday afternoon, Rev. A. E. Whitehouse, pastor of Metropolitan United Church, united in marriage Alma Lillian, youngest daughter of Mrs. H. McKay, 1109 Princess Avenue, and Mr. Tyson Dickinson, only son of Mrs. A. McAlister, Esquimalt Road. The bride wore a smartly tailored suit with matching accessories, silver fox fur, and a corsage bouquet of pale pink rosebuds and mauve sweet peas.

Easter flowers decorated the house for the event. After the refreshments had been served, the couple left for a motor trip to California, and will reside in Victoria on their return.

Among the numerous gifts were a set of table flatware from Mr. P. E. Tergeson, of Tergeson Bros., by whom the bridegroom is employed; a set of Hudson's Bay point blankets from the Hudson's Bay Company, and a silver tea service and tray from the staff, of which the bride had been a member for several years.

In its essence, what a glorious romance is the legend of fragrance! From worshipful beginnings as incense offered to the immortal gods, it has descended through some thousands of years to become the glorification of mortals . . . but not always has it been considered a purely feminine vanity! Spun of stuffs as insubstantial as shadows, surrounded by iridescent dreams of poets, perfume has invoked nearly every simile the mind of man could contrive . . . TO-DAY, encased in sparkling crystal, it stands as an exquisite monument to man's unending quest for beauty . . . and how fitting that discriminating men everywhere should consider it fair tribute to lovely ladies at this glorious Easter time!

BABY'S STOMACH UPSET?

BABY'S little "Tummy" is often easily upset. It is easily righted again, too, if you know just how to do it. Let Mrs. M. S. Alway, of London, Ont., tell you: "No two babies are alike, yet Baby's Own Tablets suit them all. They are a great help at the first sign of upset stomach, during teething time or when a cold is coming on. They work quickly yet gently to carry away poisons and promote quiet sleep. Walking floors at night is unknown in our home."

Local Author Produces Play

Little Theatre Sees Production By Audrey St. D. Wood

The Little Theatre Association at its monthly meeting held last night in the clubrooms, Rockland Avenue, enjoyed the presentation of the clever one-act play written by Audrey St. Denys Wood, which won second place in its recent contest for original plays written by members.

The principal characters in the play were taken by Miss Maryan Peterson, Mr. Lloyd Cann, Mr. Donald Corbett, Mrs. Pat. Fairweather and Mr. Art Kerr, minor roles being carried by Miss Mary Hickman, Messrs. Leo Marston, Philip Heal, Austin Goward, W. B. Crawley and Peter Cumberbirch. Miss Betty Fawcett and Mr. Robert Lindgren contributed Russian dances in costume.

It was announced that the sum of $125 had been realized from the Little Theatre Association's recent public play, "Quinney's." Mr. Harry Davis, president, reported that Mrs. Nixon had consented to become an honorary member of the association, the honor being conferred on her, in appreciation of her assistance with "Quinney's."

On May 17, a benefit performance will be give and will take the form of an old-time variety show, when about a dozen good acts will be presented. Next month will be the last business meeting of the season and the members were asked to give their assistance in completing the purchase of debentures amounting to $70.

The association has decided to enter one play in the Provincial Drama Festival, and possibly a second. More details will be announced at a later date.

After the meeting, refreshments were served by the members.

Ellen McAdoo Given Decree

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Ellen McAdoo de Onate, daughter of U.S. Senator William G. McAdoo obtained an interlocutory divorce decree a year ago, but it was Rafael Lopez de Onate, film actor, who applied for the final decree yesterday.

Mrs. de Onate won the divorce on charges of non-support and was awarded custody of their two-year-old son, Richard, with $25 a month for his support. De Onate admitted in testimony Senator McAdoo had financed their honeymoon trip to Europe and had largely supported them during their three years of married life.

Stockings Of Cotton But Like Silk

U.S. Research Head Tells Of New Discoveries

WASHINGTON (AP)—Cotton stockings with the appearance and durability of silk may be developed from research under way in United States department of agriculture laboratories.

Ruth O'Brien, chief of the division of textiles and clothing, made the prediction in hearings on department appropriations published Tuesday by a house committee.

According to Miss O'Brien a new cotton stocking has been produced, but is not generally on the market, with the attractiveness and serviceability of silk.

MILK-MADE CLOTHES

Women soon may protect themselves from chill winter breezes or a burning sun with a few gallons of milk spun into fashionable fabrics. Agriculture department scientists agree "milk-made" clothes are not beyond the realm of actualities.

At recent hearings before the appropriations committee, Dr. O. I. Reed, chief of the Bureau of Dairying, said experiments had produced a textile fibre from casein, a major ingredient of milk. As yet, he said, there had not been sufficient uniformity to permit spinning or strength tests.

Woman M.P. Twits Men In Verse

LONDON (CP)—Miss Megan Lloyd George, M.P., has put to verse what she declares is the shame of Conservative M.P.'s—all except "those gallant Tory members who voted against the government."

Speaking at the National Liberal Club she said that after Anthony Eden's resignation there was a clarion call to the Conservative party to close its ranks. Did they not realize what was at stake? Nothing less than the solidarity of the Tory party — that bulwark against the advancing tides of progress "which might overwhelm us at any moment."

Breaking into rhyme Miss Lloyd George said:

"But was there a man dismayed?
Not though the members knew,
someone had blundered,
Theirs not to make reply,
Theirs not to reason why, theirs
but to vote,
Into the lobby of yes-men
trooped the 400."

Austrian Girl Seeks Husband

MONTREAL (CP)—A 21-year-old Viennese girl of "small but sporting size" and "splendidly tempered" is seeking a Canadian home and husband.

But prospective candidates for the maiden's hand first must apply to J. Adhemar Raynault, "His Honor the Lord Mayor of Montreal," to whom the girl's plea was addressed.

The mayor's office released the text of her letter but withheld the name of the girl, "a selling girl in a drug-store of profession." The picture of a comely lass accompanied the letter.

The girl wrote because "I am informed that your country is short for girls and that a big part of your masculine inhabitants must remain unmarried."

War Prejudice Affects Opera

WINNIPEG (CP) — Prejudice born of war has made the opera "Madame Butterfly" unpopular in western Canada, Carlo Peroni, conductor of the San Carlo Opera Company, said today.

Mr. Peroni said theatre managers at Vancouver, Edmonton and Calgary had refused the opera "Madame Butterfly," which in other years had ranked with Carmen as first choice of opera lovers.

EDMONTON (CP)—Denial the opera "Madame Butterfly" had been refused a showing here was given today by Arnold Entwhistle, manager of the theatre company which handled the Edmonton bookings for the recent San Carlo Opera Company tour.

"We certainly did not refuse it, and in fact we would have liked very much to have booked it here," Entwhistle said, "but it was not even mentioned on the tentative list the San Carlo management sent us for approval five weeks before the troupe came here."

39 Cents a Day to Educate B.C. Child

Cost of Education in Province 6 Cents a Day to Everyone

It costs 39 cents a day on an average to educate a child in British Columbia. Of this amount the provincial government puts up 12 cents and municipalities the rest.

These calculations are worked out in the latest annual report of the British Columbia public school system made public today by the Department of Education.

The total bill for education of high school and elementary pupils is given as $9,031,376 for the year.

This covers an enrolment of 118,431 pupils, the highest in the province's history. The average daily attendance of pupils was 104,044.

The government's share of the bill was $2,715,474. In addition the government paid out $562,185 in grants to the university and Victoria College, normal and night schools.

BELOW 1929

Calculations in the report give the cost of educating a pupil for a year as $76.25, this being based on the total enrolment. On the basis of the average attendance the cost rises to $86.80. The government's share of this is $22.93 on enrolment and $26.10 on attendance.

Split among the public, the school bill works out at $12.04 per capita for the year or 6 cents a day.

The cost of education, while it has increased slightly in the last few years is still $1,500,000 less than it used to be in 1929, although the enrolment of pupils has been gradually mounting.

For fiscal 1928-29 British Columbia spent $11,149,996 on its schools. This dropped during depression years to $8,213,369 in 1933-34 and is now up again to $9,593,562 for the overall cost.

When the school bill was over $11,000,000 there were only 109,588 pupils enrolled, with an average attendance of 94,410. With few exceptions the enrolment has mounted year by year until now it is at an all-time high of 118,431. The percentage of attendance last year was 87.85.

Out of the total enrolment 22,338 children are in high schools. This is roughly 20 per cent of the total and represents the largest proportion the province has ever had in high school. Ten years ago only 12.5 per cent of the school pupils were in high school.

Boys have a slight numerical advantage over girls in the enrolment with 60,280 of them against 58,151 of the fairer sex.

However in the higher grades, right through to senior matriculation, the girls outnumber the boys. In Grade Ten there are 3,700 girls against 3,334 boys, in Grade Eleven 2,346 against 2,130, in Grade Twelve 1,738 against 1,543 and in senior matric 230 against 219.

The province has 3,707 regular teachers and 318 special instructors to teach its 118,431 children. This is an average of 32 children enrolled to each teacher and an average of 28 in attendance.

With an increase of 1,700 in the number of pupils last year there were 69 more teachers. Men got most of the new teaching jobs, as the number of male teachers increased from 1,403 to 1,496, while the number of women teachers dropped from 2,553 to 2,529.

Besides the regular high and elementary schools education is being provided for another 29,899 persons in the province. These are segregated as follows: High school correspondence courses, 1,694; elementary correspondence courses, 993; night schools, 7,901; adult education, 16,876, including 2,259 in technical classes; 893 in prospectors' classes, 374 in vocational correspondence courses, 1,343 in community self-help groups and 11,860 in recreational and physical education classes; normal schools, 215; Victoria College 171, and the University of British Columbia, 2,049.

REVIEWS B.C. POLICE SYSTEM

Assistant Commissioner T. W. S. Parsons Addresses Historical Association

A review of Provincial Police operations in British Columbia which showed how the force keeps in contact with the entire province through an efficient short-wave radio telegraphy system was presented to the British Columbia Historical Association by Thomas W. S. Parsons, assistant commissioner of B.C Police, last night.

In the course of his address, Commissioner Parsons suggested it would not be long before the Provincial Police would have to inaugurate its own aerial patrol in the northern areas to give efficient protection to the wide expanse now handled by outlying detachments.

Commissioner Parsons sketched the growth of the provincial force from its early days and linked it with the growth of British Columbia.

The police history of the province he divided into three periods the first being the formation of a form of policing to protect the interests of the Hudson's Bay Company, the second being the policing during the colonial period, and the third being the creation of the Provincial Police as it was known today.

The first period included the time preceding the creation of the Crown Colonies of British Columbia and Vancouver Island in 1858 and the second period included the time that the Crown Colonies were in existence. It was during this time that the great Fraser River gold rush took place and Victoria was the scene of ever-increasing human activity with the resulting need for increased police protection.

This matter was mentioned several times by Governor James Douglas in his despatches to the Secretary of State with the result that the colonial force was established with Angustus F. Pemberton as commissioner in July, 1858.

Police administration was brought under one head in 1866, Commissioner Parsons continued when the colonies of Vancouver Island and British Columbia were united.

The formation of the provincial force followed British Columbia's entry into Confederation in 1872.

Throughout his talk Mr. Parsons dealt with various interesting personalities who had held executive posts with the force, including Mr. Pemberton and Chartres Brew, an Irishman, who was inspector of police under Pemberton, who recommended the bringing of 150 members of the Irish Constabulary for police administration.

This suggestion never came about however, owing to the high cost entailed and the police were recruited from local residents.

In dealing with the development of the force to its present stage Commissioner Parsons spoke of the wider field which the force now embraced and the resultant need for greater personnel.

The speaker was introduced by Dr. T. A. Rickard, president, and Capt. Bowen-Colthurst moved a vote of thanks.

BOILED BONE BROTH for little WENG FU!

FAR AWAY in Inland China, there are children who never taste milk, and because other good foods are not plentiful, the children are in danger of not getting enough minerals. So Chinese mothers in this district boil the little bones from pig's feet. From this broth or soup the children get the minerals they need for growth, health and strength. Half-way around the world from China there are Canadian children who, in spite of lots of milk and other well-known foods, are often in the same danger. They need extra supplies of minerals just as the Chinese children do . . .

. . . but Canadian Mothers give their children Cocomalt —the scientific food tonic

Thanks to Cocomalt . . . there are thousands of children now enjoying happy health and growing up with strong, vigorous bodies and sound, white teeth. Cocomalt supplies minerals, Vitamin "D", and other nourishing vital food essentials lacking in many modern foods. Milk, for instance, has scarcely any Iron. Cocomalt has plenty. White bread and flour are decidedly low in Calcium and Phosphorus. There's ample in Cocomalt; and it also contains an abundance of energy-giving Carbohydrates and muscle-building Proteins.

For your children's health, strength, vitality and endurance serve Cocomalt. It is easy to prepare HOT or COLD. Get Cocomalt at your drug or grocery store. Available in purity-sealed, ½-lb., 1-lb. and the economical 5-lb. cans. For further important information concerning the value of Cocomalt write to Scott Bathgate Co. Evidence Given On Scott's Death

Suffering From Injury Did Not Hasten Passing, Says Sanitarium Head

GUELPH, Ont. (CP)—Death of Walter Scott, former Premier of Saskatchewan, at the Homewood Sanitarium was not hastened by the suffering he endured following the breaking of his leg, Dr. Harvey Clare, superintendent of the sanitarium, on Tuesday told F. N. Barlow, K.C., royal commissioner investigating the institution here.

At the same time the superintendent said removal of the former premier to a hospital in his excited condition following the scuffle with an attendant when his leg was broken in a fall would have caused serious injury to the patient.

Dr. Clare was called to the stand after the commissioner had heard Crown Attorney J. M. Kearns of Wellington County say the Homewood board of visitors had not functioned in recent years as it had at one time. Visits were fewer and the members felt they could not give the institution the inspection it should have. The lay members of the board were dependent on the medical members for opinion as to whether patients should be released.

C. L. Snyder, commission counsel, referred to Mr. Scott's injury when he asked Dr. Clare: "Is it correct that the attendant McKendrie, did the wrong thing when he did not report the incident to the night supervisor?"

"He should have reported it to someone," said the witness.

POSTPONEMENTS

Dr. Clare said he had told Mr. Scott he had to go to a hospital, but the patient insisted he be left until the next day. On the next morning, Monday, it was put off until Tuesday because it would have been harmful to move Mr. Scott in his excited state. On Wednesday he learned Mr. Scott had died. Dr. F. H. C. Baugh of the Homewood staff had been looking after him.

"Do you think he should have been rushed to a hospital Sunday morning?" asked Mr. Snyder.

"No," said the doctor.

The witness said he had inquired on Monday if Mr. Scott had had his leg fixed and had been told Mr. Scott would not go. He did not believe the suffering had hastened his death.

PROFITS QUESTION

Denying he was urged to make the profits as big as possible, Dr. Clare said neither he nor any other employee was a shareholder in Homewood. The only instructions he had ever received were from the late president, Fred Jarvis, who told him, "quit your worrying about getting patients. If it doesn't pay it isn't your funeral."

DECLARED UNTRUE

"A bizarre falsehood" was the way Dr. F. H. C. Baugh described a statement that he had told Angus McIntosh, wealthy patient from Montreal, he was there for keeps. Dr. Baugh said McIntosh's evidence at the inquiry exhibited delusions of persecution typical of sufferers from paranoia.

The beaver uses its flat tail as a rudder in swimming and as a signaling device to pound the water in time of danger, but it does not use its tail in digging or carrying mud for building, as is sometimes stated.

Trade Alone to Be Covered By Pact

BIRMINGHAM, Eng. (CP-Havas)—The new Anglo-American commercial accord will be a "trade agreement pure and simple" and not a "political rapprochement meaning a sacrifice by any British industry," Captain Euan Wallace, parliamentary secretary to the Board of Trade, declared in a speech Tuesday.

Death of Baby Is Caused By Child

NEW YORK (AP)—Only two and a half years old, Vincent Salerno Jr., is too young to realize he caused the death of his baby brother.

He placed a pillow over the face of seven-month-old Donald Salerno yesterday to "keep him warm."

"He was cold," Vincent explained to his father, a relief project worker who came home to find Donald smothered.

Placing equipment overhead in a factory is a way of saving considerably in what managers call "handling expenses."

Plans to Recover Stolen Goods

VANCOUVER (CP) — Chief of Police W. W. Foster has announced that henceforth when a person demands return of stolen goods from a second-hand dealer he will be given a printed circular outlining the various courses he can follow to secure their recovery.

The announcement followed complaints last week to the city council by citizens who claimed they were forced to buy back from second-hand dealers property which had been stolen from them. The complaints brought charges of a "stolen goods" racket.

According to Chief Foster, police officers henceforth will not offer advice to citizens in the matter. They will instead be given the circular which explains:

1. That no one can acquire legal title to stolen goods, innocently or otherwise.

2. That stolen goods can always be recovered by the rightful owner through the courts—by civil procedure and criminal prosecution.

3. That civil courts in all cases can order return of stolen goods and criminal courts can order their return in some cases.

Shawnigan Lake

The Shawnigan Lake Women's Institute held their monthly meeting in the S.L.A.A. Hall.

Several donations for the apron sale were received. It was proposed to inaugurate an institute magazine and Mrs. M. M. MacDonald was appointed local secretary, pro tem. A pie plate and silver stand was presented to Mrs. A. Rayton for her untiring efforts on behalf of the institute. Mrs. M. E. Kinloch and Mrs. F. T. Elford gave interesting talks on their recent visit to California.

The Malahat Branch Canadian Legion met at Bamberton, with Comrade T. Zellinsky in the chair.

It was proposed to invite Comrade Latta of the Victoria District Council to show his motion pictures of the Vimy Pilgrimage.

The Women's Auxiliary under Mrs. J. B. Bell met the same evening. It was decided to hold a silver tea at the home of Mrs. Zellinsky at Bamberton in the near future.

Marx Brothers' Appeal Fails

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The United States circuit court of appeals here Tuesday denied the appeal of Chico and Groucho Marx, film comedians, against a fine of $1,000 each imposed against them by the federal district court in Los Angeles on a conviction of copyright infringement.

APPEAL FAILS

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—The Ohio supreme court today dismissed the appeal of Anna Marie Hahn, convicted Cincinnati poison slayer, and sentenced her to die in the electric chair May 4. The court held there was no constitutional question involved in her appeal.

Willoughby Is Spark In Win

Rifles Home 23 Points As Western Cagers Whip Saskatoon Grads 48 to 34

SASKATOON—Slender, sharp-shooting Art Willoughby today was the toast of Vancouver Westerns, British Columbia's basketball champions, on the trail of another Canadian senior men's championship. In the opening clash of the two-game total-point western Canada semi-finals here last night Willoughby looped through 23 points as the coast champions defeated Saskatoon Grads, Saskatchewan titleholders, 48 to 34.

The teams will meet in the second engagement tomorrow night, with the Westerns taking a 14-point advantage on to the floor.

Although the coast champions led 26 to 19 at half-time, they did not make sure of victory until the last five minutes of play when the homesters lost the range. Midway in the second the Grads showed unsuspected power against the highly-rated Westerns and deadlocked the score at 31 to 31.

The Westerns showed better ball-handling ability than the Grads, but failed to finish their plays by frequently over-passing. The Grads did not display any consistent system of attack, but fought all the way. Balfour Kirkpatrick, their lanky centre, used his height to great advantage to intercept the Westerns' rushes.

Jim "Bugs" Bardsley was second in the Westerns' scoring list with 11 points. Seven of his points were scored in the latter part of the second half when his club went into the lead. Dick Wright and the veteran Wally Mayers each chalked up five points for the winners and Al Beaton scored their remaining four points.

GAIN EARLY LEAD

Westerns started off the first half as if they were going to run away from the Saskatchewan champions. The British Columbians ran up a 15 to 5 lead and had the home club baffled by their passing attack when Bob Smith, Dick Cherry, Tom Clendenning and Balfour Kirkpatrick scored without a reply from the visitors. With the score at 15 to 15, Wally Mayers scored on a long shot and "Bugs" Bardsley dropped in two in a row to send the Westerns well in front again.

The first 10 minutes of the second belonged to the Grads. With Harry Colman leading the way and receiving good support from his mates, the Hub City club deadlocked the score at 31 to 31. Probably surprised by being caught and tied by the prairie aggregation, the Westerns settled down and rolled up 13 points while the Grads were scoring three. Willoughby, Bardsley, Beaton and Wright all counted baskets in their strong finish.

The box score follows:

By PETE SALLAWAY

FISHERMEN have been proven prevaricators. Now, with the trout season open, a cynic might easily convince a jury that all anglers are more or less balmy, too. Fishermen ignore kith and kin for a month before trout season opens to browse around fishing catalogues, overreach the family budget to buy featherweight rods, gaudy flies, waders and fancy creels to hold fish they seldom catch.

Trout streams in early season frequently are high and discolored. Despite the fact that such a situation calls for use of live bait and spinners, or at least streamer or bucktail, the angler wafts and dry fly on the stream's bosom with only one chance in a hundred of hooking a fish.

Picture the real enthusiastic chap on a mountain stream that rushes down a rather stiff grade at considerable speed. It's full of rocks and the footing is precarious. Does he take the easy way out and fish down stream? No, he laboriously works his way up, stumbling over boulders, fighting a current that threatens to sweep him off his feet, and, after catching one or two small trout, exults exceedingly because he believes he caught it through throwing a perfect cast—while in truth, he was just plain lucky.

You should see him vent his spleen when his backcast catches on an overhanging tree, or a big one gets away. We have heard about the fisherman, who on breaking a leader on a big trout, could outdo any golf club breaker. He talks about the barometric and solunar influence on the feeding periods of fish when he knows well enough that fish feed when they are hungry, and that you find them where they are and no other place.

If he is a trout angler he belittles the bass fisherman and if a bass plugger, he derides the fly caster. If the sun is shining and he catches no fish, then the day is too bright for trout to feed. If the day is cloudy and the fish are not hitting, the barometer is falling, the day is too dark and he should have fished last week when it was sunny.

Your angler will go to any end to steal away from job and family for a week-end trip. He'll risk pneumonia to wade a stream all day after submersion to his neck, roast all day under a hot sun and freeze all night under an inadequate pile of blankets. He'll go on a fishing trip for a vacation and a rest, and get up at 4 in the morning for the early feeding period.

Italy, like every other nation in Europe, is embarked on a rapid development of athletics, but the Italian government is the only one on the continent which insures its athletes against death and injury.

In all there are 2,472,236 athletes insured by the government, of which number 471,784 come under the jurisdiction of the Italian Olympic Committee. Insurance is obligatory, and when the Olympic committee issues a membership card the athlete pays 24 cents for insurance, which is automatically included.

In the event of death his family is paid $526, and in the case of permanent disability his family gets $1,052. Those temporarily disabled get $2 daily after the fifteenth day of unemployment.

One Time When Hold Was Real

Wrestlers Rushed to Hospital When Muscles Tighten in Leg-lock

MONTREAL (AP) — It took a hospital interne and an oil massage last night to untangle a couple of wrestlers locked in a hold that even skilled ring attendants were unable to break.

Henri Dufresne, 33-year-old Montrealer, and Mamoru Noguche, a Japanese, had to be removed to hospital in an ambulance for the "operation."

Dufresne threw himself at Noguche and clamped a leg-lock on the Japanese. Noguche retaliated with the same hold and the pair slithered on the canvas. The wrestlers fell over the side of the ring onto the floor. Instead of breaking their holds, the shock of the fall tightened the wrestlers' muscles.

Howls of pain pierced the arena and ring attendants, referees and other grapplers, sought to untie the pair. Fearing a forced release of the holds would result in severe muscle injury, one of the managers called the ambulance and the entangled combatants were carted away on a stretcher.

Rugby Union Heads Re-elected En Bloc

Major Stuart Robertson Again President of Victoria Body

Confidence in the way in which affairs are being handled by Victoria Rugby Union officials, was expressed at the annual meeting last night when the complete slate of officers was returned by acclamation. The acting officers re-elected are as follows: President, Major Stuart Robertson; vice-presidents, Lieut.-Commander Wurtele and J. Rowland Sr.; secretary, Brian Tobin, and treasurer, E. J. Stephens.

About 30 club delegates, players and referees attended the session which discussed at length proposed improvements in existing regulations. The proposed changes, with one or two amendments, were adopted along with the annual reports.

Reports presented by the officers showed a successful season in the development of senior players from intermediate material. Gate receipts were a little below the previous season due to bad weather at the time of both McKechnie Cup home games, but the union did finish on the right side of the books. Thanks were extended to C. E. Ley, chairman of the referees' board; the referees, the press and the special committee for its work in drawing up the slate of playing condition recommendations.

CUPS PRESENTED

Trophies won during the season were presented by George Jay and George H. Deane, municipal schools inspector. Previous to the presentation ceremony, Mr. Deane congratulated the union on the success of its recently-concluded season, and remarked on the development of rugby in the public schools. The future senior players should be given every encouragement, he said. Mr. Deane declared the game of rugby to be a fine training for playing the game of life, and said he would be glad to assist rugby in any way he could.

Mr. Jay presented the provincial senior A championship Rounsefel Cup to Wally Stipe, captain of the J.B.A.A. fifteen, and the Cowichan Trophy, symbolic of island supremacy, to Ronnie McConnan, skipper of the Oak Bay Wanderers. The Province Cup, provincial senior B trophy, was presented to Lieut.-Commander J. C. I. Edwards of the navy. Mr. Deane presented the Times Cup, symbolic of the city senior B championship, to Lieut.-Commander Wurtele, R.C.N., and the Barnard Cup, city senior A championship, to Wally Stipe of the J.B.A.A. The Heyland Cup, intermediate title, was presented to Bill Noel, captain of the Victoria College team.

HOSTAK WINS BY KNOCKOUT

Seattle Scrapper Puts Away Chief Paris in Fourth Round

SEATTLE—Al Hostak, rugged Seattle Slav, knocked out Chief Paris, Okmulgee, Okla., Indian, in fourth round of their scheduled 10-round main event last night.

Hostak weighed 157¼; Paris, 152½.

It was Hostak's 12th consecutive knockout, and his 15th since he began fighting as a middleweight.

However, Hostak had his hands full the first three rounds, and was trailing on points when he finally found the range in the fourth to floor the Oklahoma Indian with three long, straight rights. It was the only knockdown of the night, but it put Paris out for keeps.

In the first round the fighters sparred around at long range with neither having much advantage.

Chuck Nickason, 179¾, Vancouver, B.C., light-heavy, won as he pleased from Gene O'Grady, 181, Ashland, Ore., in the six-round semi-windup. O'Grady was groggy the last three rounds.

Win Makes Seals Hot Favorites For Title

Come Back to Tie Junior Ice Final With 4 to 1 Verdict Over Oshawa

TORONTO — Repercussions of St. Boniface Seals' 4 to 0 victory over Oshawa Generals rumbled through junior hockey circles today, many believing a repetition of the 1937 Memorial Cup series in the offing.

Like Winnipeg Monarchs of last year, Seals were whipped in the first game. But the westerners' shutout triumph in the second game last night was so decisive, the experts look for them to repeat Monarch's feat of last year now by sweeping the series in three straight.

More than 10,000 fans turned out for last night's torrid tilt to establish a new high attendance mark for junior hockey.

Weakened by injuries and illness, Generals fought back gallantly until two goals, 22 seconds apart, in the final minute of play sent them to their doom. Just prior to this quick-scoring act, Oshawa looked dangerous and for the first time during the game were overshadowing the Manitobans.

Generals lost Dan McTavish, one of their defence bulwarks when he fractured his wrist in the first game. On top of this, Ab Town, star defenceman, contracted a septic throat that left him weak and jittery.

Even if the easterners had been at full strength, it is doubtful whether they could have conquered their rivals, who were skating faster than in the first game. St. Boniface outshot Oshawa in the first two periods, 19 to 10 and 11 to 8, and matched them with nine in the third.

Bill Reay was the scoring star last night, whipping in the first and last goals. Sandwiched in between were markers by Capt. Bert Janke and George Gordon.

Janke took the spotlight from his starry defence mate, Wally Stanowski, with his all-round effectiveness. Stanowski made the play for Reay's first tally and participated in several dangerous sorties later but he was not the standout of the first game.

Bill Taylor, Oshawa's main offensive threat, sputtered intermittently. He failed to produce his usual quota of points, however. And with Taylor not functioning in his usual explosive manner, the rest of the team just couldn't click.

TRAIL CLUB IS ALL SET

Battle Cornwall Tonight in First Game of Canadian Amateur Hockey Final

SASKATOON—The Allan Cup hockey final series opens here tonight with Trail Smoke Eaters, western champions, and Cornwall Flyers, representatives from the east, just about even choices in the betting.

After watching both squads skate through light workouts, railbirds figured Cornwall's weight advantage and tight defence would balance the British Columbia champion's fancy passing plays.

Both camps were quietly confident before opening the best of five series, but neither would venture an opinion.

"I hear they're awful good," was all reporters could coax from coach Don Penniston, who master-minded the textile town team to unexpected victories over Falconbridge and Quebec.

"We're ready," said coach Elmer Piper of Trail. "It will be a great series and I hope the gang are all in there."

MORRIS DOUBTFUL

Only doubtful starter is Jimmy Morris, Trail's high-scoring defenceman. Morris is nursing a strained ankle. If he doesn't start, his place will be taken by Jimmy Haight, former Saskatoon Wesley junior.

Otherwise the starting lineups for both teams will be the same as the teams have used during the playoffs.

"Wib" Landymore, Cornwall rearguard, has recovered from a skate cut and infection which kept him out of several eastern playoff games.

Western official for the game will be Ike Morrison of Ardill, Sask., while "Army" Armstrong of Oshawa, Ont., will be the eastern representative.

Probable lineups follow:

Trail — Scodellaro; Snowden, Johnston; Cronie, Dame, Benoit. Subs: Duchak, Kowcinak, McCreedy, Brennan and Haight or Morris.

Cornwall—Perras; McMahon, Gillie; Brown, Beloche, MacDonald. Subs: Gardiner, McClelland, Godin, Proulx.

Women's Golf Play Advances

Complete results follow:

FIRST ROUND

Mrs. C. Brown defeated Mrs. J. Robinson, 4 and 3.

Joan Fletcher defeated Mrs. V. Percival, 3 and 2.

Mrs. B. M. Clifford defeated Mrs. Lovell, 4 and 3.

Defeated four form first flight.

SECOND FLIGHT

Third Flight Proper—Mrs. L. Nelson defeated Miss A. Talbot, 5 and 4.

Mrs. C. Pearce and Mrs. Bradbury to play.

Stewart Has Much Praise

Manager of Chicago Hockey Champs Lauds His Band of Athletes

CHICAGO (CP)—"If I die between now and next year, those Black Hawks are the greatest bunch of athletes in the world," Manager Bill Stewart sang last night as he danced into the dressing-room and pumped the hand of every one of his new Stanley Cup hockey champions.

The Athletes themselves, who comprised a down-trodden sixth-place entry at the start of the playoffs, sang, danced and lifted Stewart to their shoulders.

"Doc" Romnes took time out to kiss the puck he snatched after Carl Voss had broken a 1 to 1 tie in the second period. Jack Shill could not forget his long, looping shot that trickled between Goalie Turk Broda's legs. Alfie Moore, the New York American sub-goalie, commandeered for the opening game because of an injury to Mike Karakas, promised to "fall off the wagon."

They had just trounced those dashing Toronto Maple Leafs, National League champions, 4 to 1, for their third win in the best three of five match series.

The Leafs, who had upset the highly-regarded Boston Bruins three straight to enter the playoffs, trudged into their dressing-room with little to say.

NOT GOOD ENOUGH

"The youngest team ever to reach the playoffs," Manager Conny Smythe said after a consoling word to his athletes. "Nine kids just hit their 23rd birthday. "They'll be back again," then, chuckling, he added "you'll see plenty of them."

As for the game itself, he said "I'm glad the final game was refereed properly and decided on its merits. We weren't good enough to win tonight."

Red Horner and Harvey Jackson, the Leafs' two veterans of the 1932 Toronto cup winners, both agreed breaks of the game were the deciding factors. Horner received torn ligaments in his left knee early in the game and left the ice in the second period. He returned briefly in the final.

Turk Broda, Leaf goalie, had little to say about Shill's shot that carried halfway down the rink and through his legs for a goal.

"I should never have come out on it," he said. "I was going down when it hopped through."

All the athletes had a good word for the Hawks' play, praising their checking and particularly the work of Goalie Karakas

Providence In Hockey Triumph

SYRACUSE, N.Y.—Providence Reds last night won the championship of the International-American Hockey League by defeating Syracuse Stars 4 to 1 to win the best-of-five game playoff series three games to one.

MIXED FOURSOMES

A mixed foursomes competition will be played at the Uplands Golf Club on Good Friday. Players will arrange for their own partners, opponents and starting times. Post entries will be accepted.

Turn Back Toronto By 4-1

Complete Story-book Finish By Winning Fourth Game and Stanley Cup

CHICAGO (CP) — The fabled story of Chicago's unpredictable Black Hawks, a battle-scarred group of veterans led by a first-year coach, is at an end. There couldn't have been a more fairy-tale finish—crowning of Hawks as world hockey champions and holders of the Stanley Cup.

They said it couldn't happen, but it did last night before 17,204 fans who watched Hawks humble Toronto Maple Leafs, National League champions, 4 to 1, and win the viciously-fought cup final in four games. It was dizzy, and daffy, but true.

Hawks wound up with the most decisive victory of the series, productive of managerial brawling, unprecedented situations, and charges and counter charges by both teams. Finally the inexperience of Toronto's youngsters cracked wide open before the experience of the "aged" Hawks.

The crack-up came in the space of a minute and 13 seconds of the second period. Until then its was anybody's game with the score tied at 1 to 1. Two swift errors spelled doom for the Leafs and the end of one of hockey's greatest comebacks.

TWO TOUGH GOALS

Carl Voss, unwanted around the N.H.L. a few months ago, stole the puck from George Parsons in front of the Leaf net, and shot what proved to be the winning goal at 16.45 of the second period. Little more than a minute later goaler Walter Broda allowed Jack Shill's looping backhand shot from centre ice to go between his knees as he dropped to meet it.

These two mistakes were all Hawks needed, for their checking was grand, and goaler Mike Karakas brilliant the few times he needed to be. At no time did the Leafs threaten to make a fight of it after going two down. Mush March's third-period goal was only incidental.

Cully Dalstrom and Gordon Drillon had fired the opening goals to set the stage for Toronto's collapse. Dahlstrom's was first, at 5.52, and gave Hawks the opening goal for the first time in four games.

It was a great triumph for Bill Stewart, finishing his initiation as coach after years as the league's referee-in-chief. Given what was rated as the worst team in the league, an aggregation of veterans and castoffs spiced by only two or three stars, he led them to the cup from the last playoff slot.

Before even moving to the final with its weird happenings, Hawks staggered into the playoffs only because of the inability of the Detroit Red Wings to win their last games, then tottered on the verge of elimination twice during the preliminaries against Montreal Canadiens and New York Americans.

Their end was predicted as soon as Canadiens beat them, 6 to 4, in the first game of their best-of-three series. Hawks drubbed them two straight. Americans won, 3 to 1, in the first game of the semi-final. Hawks roared back and repeated the two-straight victory performance to qualify for the final.

Then came the dispute over the replacement of the injured Karakas, with Hawks winning the first game, 3 to 1, and Alfie Moore becoming the hero because of his pinch goal tending. Refused permission to use Moore in the second game, Hawks lost it 5 to 1, with rookie Paul Goodman in the nets. The playoff scene shifted to Chicago with Leafs still warm favorites to squelch the Hawk uprising.

GRAND COMEBACK

But with Karakas in goal despite a broken toe, and at full strength for the first time, Hawks made short work of the season's windup. They won the third game, 2 to 1, and it was a repeat performance that won them the fourth clash, mildly played in comparison to the others.

Gene Mako Laughs Off Tennis Gouging Charge

Denies He and Don Budge "Demanded" $100 Each to Play in Auckland

LOS ANGELES—Gene Mako, tennis partner of Donald Budge, laughed off published reports last night that he and the famed Oakland redhead "demanded" £20 before appearing in an exhibition match in Auckland, New Zealand, several weeks ago.

Mako said he and Budge received the amount, but explained it was tendered by the Auckland tennis people for "expense" money.

Budge and Mako, en route to the United States after a tour of Australia, spent one day in Auckland.

"Sure, they gave us £20 apiece, but we didn't demand it," Mako declared. "It's ridiculous to say we demanded it. We'd have played whether they gave it to us or not."

The Los Angeles Times reprinted a different version of the incident, as published by the New Zealand Sportsman.

"In a radiogram from Budge on an American liner, the world tennis champion demanded £20 each for himself and Gene Mako. The cable left no doubt that they would not fulfill their advertised appearance in Auckland unless they were paid."

"What happened to the £40 Budge and Mako received? There were no traveling expenses involved. Budge and Mako were returning home from Australia, and Auckland was a stated port of call. Before the team left the United States the fares had been paid to Australia and return.

"Can it be said there were expenses involved in getting from the boat to the wharves? Hardly, because the players were met at the boat by association officers and taken places at the association's expense.

"Next is the question of hotel expenses. There were none. Budge and Mako remained on the boat."

PROSPECTS FOR ANGLERS GOOD

Good Baskets of Trout and Salmon Expected For Easter Week-end

The lengthy Easter week-end is expcted to attract one of the largest crowds of anglers in years to island lakes and streams to pit their skill with rod and reel against the sporting trout. Still another set—the salmon fishermen—are planning on a number of fine fishing days at Brentwood, where grilse, packsprings and large springs are reported in bountiful numbers.

A large number of persons have already booked cabins for the week-end at the head of the Cowichan River, where fine fishing is being enjoyed. Roger Monteith and Capt. W. E. Tapley spent a day at the headwaters of the river yesterday and reeled in limit catches on the dry fly. They fished around the front of the Riverside Hotel and the Big Pool. The lower reaches of the river are also said to be producing some nice trout. Teal and red, march brown and light-colored duns are dry flies recommended.

Monteith this morning said that on the whole conditions for fishing in rivers and lakes for the week-end look pretty good. The barometer is high and prospects point to good weather.

The lakes that are showing up well these days are Shawnigan, where some excellent catches were secured last week-end; Duggan's Lake (near Cobble Hill) where Capt. C. I. Harris saught 14 yesterday on a No. 1 Stewart spoon; Prospect, where there are some fine trout rises—but hard to catch, and Kemp in the Sooke District. Little and Big Thetus Lakes have been attracting a few anglers and the fish that have been caught are in excellent condition.

A letter from Percy Elsie, proprietor of Fisherman's Lodge on the Oyster River in this morning's mail, disclosed that trout fishing is coming into its own in upper island rivers. Good sea trout fishing should be had from now on in the estuaries of the rivers. Silver-bodied flies that resemble fry are the best lures.

These include the Courtenay, Oyster, Black Creek, Little and Big Qualicum, Campbell Rivers and a number of others.

Harry Peard at Brentwood states that some of the best early salmon fishing in years is in progress now. They are taking lures of all kinds.

RICHMOND, Va.—Van Lingle Mungo, the Brooklyn Dodgers' fireballer, is intent on ending this "all through" talk. He said his arm feels stronger than at any time in the training tour and that neither it nor his shoulder has bothered him in recent workouts.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — "Can the Cards count on ol' Diz?" the big question in the St. Louis camp, may be answered April 19 by Dean, himself. Manager Frankie Frisch announced today Diz would pitch the season's opener in St. Louis against Pittsburgh Pirates.

prime factor in the Leafs' march to the Canadian section title, was still again last night against the ceaseless Hawk checking; good work by the defences and steady all-round play of Karakas. Toronto's defence, superlative in the rout of Boston Bruins, was only mediocre.

Only five penalties were doled out and four were in the first period, the only one in which the continuous stick swinging and body thumping of the first three games were evident. At the end, though, Leafs and Hawks mingled alike in a round of handshaking and backslapping.

ELECT LEADERS OF BURNS CLUB

J. A. Dewar Named President at Annual Meeting Yesterday

J. A. Dewar was elected by acclamation as president of the Burns Club of Victoria at the final meeting of the year, held last night in the Chamber of Commerce Auditorium. W. B. Grant presided.

The following officers were also elected by acclamation: Honorary president, R. Randolph Bruce; honorary vice-president, W. A. Jameson; vice-president, Adam Bell; secretary, E. M. Whyte, and treasurer, James Crossen.

Capt. J. U. Gordon, Dr. Wallace R. Gunn and David Dewar were elected to the executive for two years. Donald S. Cameron was elected to the executive for the term of one year. These offices were determined by ballot.

An extensive report on the activities of the year was presented by the secretary, E. M. Whyte. During the past season nine regular and eleven executive meetings were held. The average attendance for the executive meetings was 8.5 out of a possible 10.

HIGHLIGHTS OF YEAR

The following is a summary of the highlights of the regular meetings: Dr. Henrietta Anderson spoke on "Scottish Anecdotes," Duncan MacBride addressed the members on "Bonnie Prince Charlie," Mrs. A. S. Christie gave a talk on "Scottish Songs," Right Rev. Bishop Sexton lectured on "Scotsmen I Have Met in My Travels," Alex McCloy gave a talk on "Old Scottish Silver," W. A. Carrothers addressed the members on "Scotland's Contribution to Canadian Development," and Capt. R. W. McMurray spoke on "Some Scottish Ships and Men."

A balance of $407.40 representing an increase of $28.12 over the balance on hand at the beginning of the year was shown by the treasurer in his annual report.

W. B. Grant, the retiring president, spoke briefly to the members and congratulated them on their choice of officers for the coming year. He thanked them for their support and expressed the hope that the same support will be given Mr. Dewar as president.

The meeting received with applause the reading of a letter from the Scottish National Party in Glasgow. In the letter the party extended a warm invitation to the members to visit the "homeland" during the Empire Exhibition to be held this summer. The letter also offered assistance and advice in the matter of accommodation and transportation to any visitor who cared for it.

A letter from the Junior Chamber of Commerce was also read, asking the support of the Burns Club for the midsummer festivities in August. They were asked to sponsor a candidate for queen for the celebrations.

During the meeting a number of guests were introduced who included: Postmaster and Mrs. George Gardiner, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Cameron, Mrs. Douglas R. Park and Mrs. C. Moore.

MUSICAL PROGRAM

A musical program and entertainment followed the business of the meeting. The Hawaiian String Quartette, consisting of Miss Molly Fallick, Miss Winnie Fallick, Victor Cooley and Geogre Fallick, played the numbers: "Hawaiian Paradise," "Song of the Islands" and, as an encore, "On the Beach at Waikiki." James MacBeth danced the Sword Dance, the Highland Fling and the Sailors' Hornpipe, with Pipe Major Donald Cameron W.O., accompanying him on the pipes. Miss Catherine Denison sang "My Ain Wee Home" and "Bonnie Briar Bush." Miss E. McLeod gave recitations: "A Good For Nothing Dog," "The Thief" and, as encores, "Cuddle Doon" and "Grandfather's Knee." Clifford Moore gave piano-accordion selections: "Repasz Band" and "Tesoro Mio." Douglas Park sang "O Danny Boy" and "Take Thou This Rose."

Miss Jessie Smith, accompanist for the meetings, and Donald Cameron, bagpipe player, were thanked for their contributions to the success of meetings during the year.

After the opening of the meeting with the singing of "Ye Banks and Braes," Donald Cameron played the selection "John McFayden of Melfort" on the pipes. CANTATA AT ST. MATTHIAS

Stainer's "Crucifixion" Presented By Choir at Foul Bay Church

An augmented choir of 35 voices last night presented Stainer's cantata "Crucifixion" to an appreciative audience in St. Matthias Church.

The choir was conducted by Eric Edwards in the absence of the regular choirmaster, F. J. Crowhurst, who is ill in hospital. Assisting soloists were Arthur Jackman and H. Elwood.

A feature of the presentation was the enunciation which made it possible to clearly follow the narrative. Outstanding among the choral numbers were "Cross of Jesu" and the unaccompanied numbers, "God So Loved the World" and "Is It Nothing to You?" "They Shouted Crucify, Crucify" and "Come With Me."

One of Mr. Elwood's best performances was the sympathetic reading of "Sing Ever Glorious" while Mr. Jcakman did well with "And As Moses Lifted Up the Serpent" and the recitative "He Made Himself."

Philip Hughes presided at the organ and the congregation joined in the singing of the hymns of the cantata, including "Holy Jesu by Thy Passion," "Jesus, the Crucified," "I Adore Thee" and "All for Jesus." "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus" was the offertory hymn.

A short introductory talk on Stainer's "Crucifixion" was given by Rev. Alan Gardiner. Mr. Gardiner also expressed thanks to the choir and others who had come to its assistance to give the cantata.

NOT RETIRING FIREMEN YET

On the recommendation of Fire Chief Alex Munroe, who declared all members of the force in good physical condition, the fire wardens yesterday afternoon decided to recommend to the City Council that it take no immediate action on two men previously scheduled for superannuation.

When pension action is needed, the wardens will recommend it, Alderman Archie Wills, chairman, stated. That policy will be in keeping with a recent decision reached by the council regarding all committees.

Selection of a new car for the deputy chiefs was left in abeyance until the next meeting of the wardens.

Few Signs Now Of Los Angeles Flood

Flood conditions have disappeared and the Los Angeles River is just a trickle in the bottom of a deep gully said T. C. Whelan, former assistant manager of the Hotel Palliser in Calgary, who is back in Victoria today for a short visit.

He arrived at the Empress yesterday afternoon after spending two weeks in California. He will stop off in Vancouver before returning to Calgary.

Mr. Whelan said everything was dry again in the Los Angeles area when he was there. It was impossible to believe there had been a serious flood except for the sight of broken bridges and twisted railway tracks.

Mr. Whelan left the Empress Hotel last spring. He was at the Banff Springs Hotel as assistant manager before taking over the Palliser.

Tribute Paid To Retiring Printer

Government Printing Bureau Employees Say Farewell to T. J. Thompson

A pleasing ceremony took place at 5 o'clock last evening at the Government Printing Bureau when the employees met to pay tribute to one of their colleagues, T. J. Thompson, on the eve of his retirement. For 28 years he had been the chief proofreader for the bureau, during which time he carried out his arduous duties efficiently.

C. F. Banfield, the King's Printer, spoke in appreciation of the work accomplished by Mr. Thompson during his length of service and mentioned in particular the fine spirit of loyalty and faithfulness shown by him at all times. Mr. Banfield extended to Mr. Thompson the good wishes of the employees, and on their behalf presented him with a lounge chair and reading lamp.

B. E. Lefevre of the composing-room staff made a presentation of a bouquet to Mrs. Thompson and on behalf of the employees wished them both years of happy retirement. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson fittingly replied.

RECLAMATION IS PROPOSED

Prospects of another privately-financed agricultural land reclamation scheme on Kootenay Flats, near Creston, are now developing, Hon. A. Wells Gray, Minister of Lands, said today on his return from a visit to the Creston district where he made a preliminary survey of the projects with Hon. K. C. MacDonald, Minister of Agriculture.

Three applications, for reclamation of a total of 10,000 acres, will go before the minister for decision shortly. The applicants have 30 days in which to file briefs supporting their claims.

West Kootenay Power and Light Company also have an application in for rights to store water on the Kootenay River and this will have to be considered along with them. After decision here the matter will have to go before the International Joint Commission on water boundaries since the flow of the river into Idaho may be affected.

The proposed reclamation schemes adjoin that carried out by a company headed by Frank Putnam, M.P.P. for Nelson-Creston. These interests have about 5,500 acres under cultivation now and have produced exceptionally fine crops.

WILL REVALUE CITY HOLDINGS

New Survey of Depreciation to Be Made For Insurance Purposes

Revaluation of city holdings for insurance purposes will be undertaken in the immediate future, it was learned at the City Hall today.

At present the department in charge of insurance lists its policies on property slightly under the required amount needed to secure blanket rate coverage.

However, the survey of September, 1935, when the blanket system was inaugurated, has not been revised and the city building inspector will be requested to look over buildings to determine the extent of deterioration since that date.

Under the agreement, the city must insure for 90 per cent of its total building values and contents. Certain reverted property, however, is not included under the policy.

Premius paid annually for the insurance amount to approximately $5,013.50.

Board Approves New Committee

Group to Promote Young Men's Division Activity in the Y.M.C.A.

An active committee composed of members of the Y.M.C.A. young men's division to handle affairs of the group was endorsed by the "Y" board of directors at their monthly meeting last night.

In addition to the committee the group would be aided by a member of the board of directors and a member of the Y.M.C.A. staff. The purpose of the committee would be to embark on an education program to acquaint present members with Y.M.C.A. activities and facilities; to carry on a campaign for new membership and to form the nucleus of a young men's council within the Y.M.C.A.

The proposal, submitted by Grant Paterson, was signed by C. Stevens, J. Kemp and H. Alexander.

The report of the social and educational committee presented at last night's meeting expressed the desire to build up a service of reference for public speakers and debaters to be used in conjunction with the classes next fall. Continued progress was reported in the Camera Club activity account.

The second annual Y.M.C.A. get-together held at the Crystal Garden last month featured the report of the physical committee. The statistical report of the department showed 210 sessions had been held with an attendance of 3,746.

An active month was reported by the boys' division. Activity was featured by the annual stunt night and the Kiwanis Club reunion dinner. H. B. Witter was in the chair.

Following the reports, an account of the National Physical Convention in Niagara Falls in February was given by A. Merl Harding, visiting Y.M.C.A. national physical director.

The directors were later in the evening hosts to Mr. Harding and a number of Y.M.C.A. leaders at dinner. Mr. Harding spoke on the place of leaders in the Y.M.C.A.

TWO MISSING FLIERS SAFE

Amateur Mainland Pilots Forced Down By Trouble at Bute Inlet

Fred Ryan, Vancouver, and Humphries Svenson, Chilliwack, were reported safe in their airplane today at Bute Inlet, where they are held by a broken stay on a pontoon which is under repair.

The two amateur fliers had been missing from Vancouver since Sunday when they took off for Alert Bay.

They plan to proceed to Alert Bay after repairing the broken stay, the message received from Constable M. N. McAlpine of the Alert Bay detachment of the B.C. Police said.

Warrants for the arrest of two motorists on proof of summonses having been served were ordered by Magistrate Henry Hall in the city police court this morning. The two defendants, one charged with driving to the common danger and the other with parking too long, failed to respond as their names were called.

C. L. Harrison, city prosecutor, asked for warrants on proof of service. Several times during recent weeks traffic offenders have failed to answer summonses with the result that arrests have been made or fines paid immediately.

LODE TRAINING CAMP PLANNED

Mines Department Working on Scheme to Train Young Prospectors

A training camp in lode mining and actual prospecting work is proposed by the provincial government, in conjunction with Ottawa, this summer, Hon. W. J. Asselstine, Minister of Mines, said today.

The minister said the plan under consideration would be to take young men who have been trained during the last two years in placer camps and have attended lectures on prospecting and give them a thorough groundwork in prospecting for lode minerals.

He estimated about 25 boys might take the training.

Mr. Asselstine said he had already discussed the proposal with heads of operating mining companies, seeking an arrangement by which the boys could get practical work in mines during the winter and earn themselves a grubstake to go prospecting in spring and summer.

Last Tribute To Miss Dunsmuir

A large congregation attended the last rites held in Christ Church Cathedral yesterday afternoon for Miss Elinor Dunsmuir. A wealth of magnificent floral tributes covered the casket and hearse, and required an additional car for their conveyance to and from the church.

Bishop H. E. Sexton conducted the services, and the hymns sung were "O Love That Wilt Not Let Me Go" and "The King of Love My Shepherd Is."

The honorary pallbearers were as follows: J. Graham Graham, Maurice Hills, H. Despard Twigg, Major A. Douglas Macdonald and Dr. H. J. Wasson. The active pallbearers were: W. Packe, John F. W. Jameson, C. E. Sherwin, A. Cockburn, W. G. Stalker and W. Steers.

After the service, the remains were taken to the Royal Oak Crematorium for cremation. Hayward's B.C. Funeral Company were in charge of the arrangements.

HARRY McLEAN

Funeral services for Harry McLean will be conducted in Sands' Mortuary Chapel on Thursday afternoon at 2. Capt. F. E. Muttart, Lieut. F. L. Thompson and Adjutant H. Martin will officiate, and the remains will be laid at rest in Royal Oak Burial Park.

CHAS. W. TAYLOR

Funeral services for Charles Wesley Taylor who passed away in this city Sunday, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3.30 from the S. J. Curry and Son Funeral Home. Rev. Arthur de B. Owen will officiate, and interment will be in Royal Oak Burial Park.

Admits Getting Money Falsely

Charged with obtaining $5.65 by false pretences from Frank L. Clark, John R. Kerr pleaded guilty in the City Police Court this morning and was remanded until tomorrow for sentence.

Clark testified Kerr had given him the cheque and received $5.65. The cheque was returned "no account," and since that time Clark said he had unsuccessfully tried to have Kerr make the cheque good. Kerr had promised this several times, but had not done so, Clark said.

In remanding the case for sentence, Magistrate Henry Hall said it appeared to be another case in which the criminal court was not being properly used. Clark had taken the cheque "with his eyes open" and when he failed to get the money had taken criminal action. The court thought it was more a civil action than a criminal case.

ASSAULT CASE

The appeal of Frank H. Doye against a judgment by Chief Justice Morrison dismissing a claim against David Fairleigh for personal injuries allegedly sustained by Doye in a common assault, opened before the Court of Appeal here today.

G. L. Fraser, appearing for the appellant, contended the decision in the lower court had rested on the grounds provocation had been proved to merit the attack upon Doye who sustained a broken jaw and teeth injuries. Provocation, counsel contended, was not a defence.

Senator J. W. deB. Farris, K.C., is appearing for the respondent.

Driver Cleared By Assize Jury

R. McIntyre Acquitted After Nanaimo Hearing on Death of Rev. J. S. Orton

NANAIMO (CP) — An assize court jury late yesterday acquitted Robert McIntyre of a charge of manslaughter laid in connection with the traffic death of Rev. John Swaffield Orton, Church of England minister, last December.

It was the only case on the docket of the 1938 Nanaimo spring session of the court.

The jury returned its "not guilty" verdict after a few minutes' deliberation following evidence of various witnesses, including Constable Archibald Lashmar of the Duncan detachment of the Provincial Police.

Constable Lashmar testified he was called to the scene of the accident and found Mr. Orton sitting in a chair in a gas station, where he had been taken by three men. He was apparently not seriously hurt.

The policeman said McIntyre told him he was driving along the highway when his companion, Miss Minnie Cartwright, said there was "something" on the road. At her insistence he turned back and found the clergyman being supported by two youths.

McIntyre, Constable Lashmar said, declared that nothing had been struck by his car. The policeman then examined the machine and found a long smear on a front fender and a headlight bent 45 degrees out of alignment.

Cross-examined, Constable Lashmar testified the fender smear could have been made by something brushing against it. There was a slight dent in the fender, but no broken glass or dents on the radiator or bumper, Constable Lashmar testified.

Baseball Gossip

SPARTANBURG, N.C. — As the tumult and shouting about Joe DiMaggio swells in volume, Lou Gehrig, the iron horse of the New York Yankees, keeps moving along. He belted a homer and a triple yesterday, has hit safely in his last 12 games, and is the club's leading hitter with .357.

FRANKFORT, Ky. — The New York Giants are getting brittle again, which is something to worry Bill Terry. Lou Chiozza came up with a sprained finger on his right hand yesterday, and Johnny McCarthy also felt indisposed. So Burgess Whitehead and Sam Leslie started for the Giants at second and first.

LYNCHBURG, Va. — Deacon McKechnie appears ready to name Lee Grissom and Willard Hershberger as his battery in the opener with the Chicago Cubs in Cincinnati Tuesday. Grissom is believed to have won the nod with his work against the Red Sox, Sunday.

FRANKFORT, Ky. — Earl Whitehill will hurl for the Indians today against the Giants, having earned a place in Cleveland's "big four" by much improved control. Batters tell Manager Vitt the 38-year-old veteran has a complete assortment of curves and more speed, too.

WICHITA, Kas. — "Who said 'the loafing Pirates'?" asked Manager Pie Traynor, today. He was chuckling over Bill Brubaker's steal of home in Pittsburgh's game with the White Sox, yesterday, and Arky Vaughan's fourth and fifth homers of the training season.

Man Acquitted At Sault Ste. Marie

Jury Frees Vernon Spencer in Death of Miss Helen Grier

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont. (CP) — An assize court jury Thursday acquitted Vernon Spencer, 40-year-old former professional baseball player from Wixon, Mich., of a charge of murdering Helen Grier, his companion on a hunting trip in northern Ontario last fall.

In his charge to the jury Mr. Justice C. P. McTague had said: "I could not reconcile my conscience to convict the accused on the type of evidence that is offered here."

Neither Spencer nor his wife showed any emotion as the jury foreman said "We find the prisoner not guilty."

Attendants immediately stopped applause in the courtroom.

After the jury was dismissed, Mr. Justice McTague spoke to Spencer: "I have no sermon to deliver to you, Spencer, at all. It's a time-honored custom which, perhaps, I do not follow. I only hope that as an American you will realize our juries are still handing out what we call British justice. You will now be discharged."

The judge's charge came at the end of six days of evidence-taking. Witnesses told of find the body of Miss Grier, a rifle nearby, on Oct. 28, after Spencer had told police "Helen killed herself."

RED LAKE PROFITS

TORONTO (CP) — McKenzie Red Lake Gold Mines Limited reported net profit for 1937 of $282,287, compared with $221,812 in 1936. After payment of $261,000 in dividends, surplus account was increased to $172,154 from $151,187.

Owing to the type of ore occurrence, no estimate of ore reserves was made, but M. F. Fairlie, managing director, believed reserves were about constant with the previous year when it was stated about two years' supply was in sight.

Bridge Wreckage Sinks in Niagara

Crowds See Last of Old Steel Structure Slip From Ice

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont. (CP) —The Falls View Bridge, famous honeymoon span which collapsed in a midwinter ice jam, disappeared from view late Tuesday in the Niagara River. The broken bridge floated a half-mile down the river before it sank.

The fallen steel structure had rested since January 27 on the thick carpet of ice which caused its doom after a short, sudden January thaw almost filled the Niagara gorge with huge chunks of ice swept down from Lake Erie.

At 3.35 yesterday afternoon the last visible 200-foot piece of bridge started to move with the ice. Thousands lined the banks on both sides of the river and watched the massive steelwork move downstream on its ice-carrier.

Suddenly the ice holding it up fell away and the structure sank in 275 feet of water.

Since the spectacular collapse of the bridge into the gorge, Niagara Falls has been visited by tourists from every part of Canada and the United States.

New Plans Soon For Quintuplets

They Will Not Be Shown to Public at Present Yard After This Summer

NEW YORK (CP)—Dr. Allan Roy Dafoe told interviewers here today the Dionne quintuplets will not be exhibited in their Callander, Ont., play-yard after this summer. He said some other means of showing them would have to be found.

Dr. Dafoe said their exhibition had done them no harm, but the guardians were beginning to feel it might be harmful if it were prolonged unduly. He added he believed one more season under existing conditions would be harmless.

Here on a shopping expedition for the quintuplets, the country doctor said also any offer from the New York 1939 World's Fair for exhibition of the children would be rejected.

"I don't know officially that any offer has been made," he said, "but I have heard unofficially that some world's fair people approached the guardians. The children won't be moved."

Dr. Dafoe said the guardians never would permit the children to be exhibited for money.

At the same time he said the guardians wished to enlarge the quintuplets' personal fortune of roughly $500,000 to a point where interest from the sum, invested entirely in government bonds, would enable them to meet all expenses.

He described the health of his charges as excellent, and added they spoke French and understood some English. Hereafter their education, now in pre-kindergarten stage, will be in the hands of the Ontario Department of Education.

SHAWNIGAN LAKE

On Saturday night in the Shawnigan Lake Athletic Association Hall, under the direction of Miss Pat Carr-Hilton of Duncan, an exhibition of tap, toe ballet and national dances was given.

During the intervals Leonard Weaver and A. de C. Denny, both of Duncan, rendered yodelling, cowboy songs and humorous recitations.

On Saturday afternoon the Shawnigan Lake Women's Institute held an Easter bazaar and apron sale. The stalls were decorated. Guessing contests were held. The Junior Red Cross operated a bran tub.

Mrs. A. Taggart first president of the institute opened the bazaar.

Alice Faye At Atlas Theatre

Magnificent Theatrical Sets Seen in Entertaining New Picture

Lavish theatrical sets, which strained the capacity of the famous "Phantom" stage at Universal studios, were used in the staging of the elaborate dance numbers seen in "You're A Sweetheart," which stars Alice Faye with George Murphy and which comes to the Atlas Theatre today. It's the biggest stage in Hollywood and the first built of structural steel.

The popular Miss Faye leads the dance choruses in two of the numbers, "My Fine Feathered Friend," and "Oh, Oh, Oklahoma." She also does two specialty dances with George Murphy, "Scrapin' the Toast," and "You're A Sweetheart."

Ince seventeen years ago, that Douglas MacLean, the producer of the present screen play, first achieved stardom.

PLAZA THEATRE

The blonde and lovely Anna Sten, in a dancing, singing, talking, and altogether dazzling role, which will delight her old and win her countless new admirers, is starred at the Plaza Theatre in "Two Who Dared," a colorful, romantic drama of Russian life under the Czar, released by Grand National, in which she is teamed with Henry Wilcoxon.

DOMINION THEATRE

"Scarface," the Howard Hughes spectacle which is showing at the Dominion Theatre, will doubtless be the last gang picture, for the reason that it presents such a striking study of criminal conditions in the United States that it exhausts the subject as far as the screen is concerned

BRITISH-ITALIAN PACT APPROVED

Cabinet in London Accepts Draft Before Signing Set For Week-end

LONDON (AP) — The cabinet, at its last session before Easter, today gave approval to the final draft of the Anglo-Italian pact of reconciliation, which probably will be signed at the coming week-end.

The cabinet's action was taken just two months after Premier Mussolini hinted he would like to negotiate an understanding.

Also approved was the plan for Rt. Hon. Leslie Hore-Belisha, Secretary for War, to have a conversation with Mussolini April 23, the day after he arrives in Rome following an inspection visit to Malta. He will carry a message said to express the Prime Minister's personal satisfaction at the successful negotiation of the agreement.

Political commentators thought the talk between Mussolini and the dynamic Hore-Belisha would be weighted with significance. The London News Chronicle, Liberal, declared: "It will be the War Minister's job to compete in blandishments with Hitler."

Chancellor Hitler of Germany is due to visit Mussolini in Rome in about three weeks.

Some commentators thought Mussolini faces a choice of finally aligning himself with Germany in the Rome-Berlin axis, or with Great Britain and France, Italy's war-time allies. If he sticks with Hitler, they said, he faces the possibility ultimately of colliding with German ambitions in the Balkans and central Europe.

COMMITTEE NAMED

LONDON (CP-Havas)—An unofficial parliamentary committee to collaborate in fostering friendship between Great Britain and Italy was established today. Soon after Easter the committe will ask Italian ambassador Dino Grandi to a dinner to be held at the Chamber of Commerce.

Headed by Sir Philip Dawson, the committee includes Sir Patriek Hannon, Sir Thomas Moore and Adam Maitland, all Conservatives.

Wheat Fails To Hold Cent Gain

WINNIPEG (CP) — Scattered offerings forced Winnipeg wheat futures from early gains to more than a cent today. There was virtually no buying in late dealings as futures closed ⅛ to ½ cent higher, May $1.24⅞, July $1.13⅞, and October 89⅜ cents.

Higher Liverpool prices on expectation France and Italy may enter the market for supplies, reports of duststorms from Garden City, Kas., and firmness in stocks spurred early advances. Later Chicago weakened, presumably on more favorable reports from the greater part of the southwest winter wheat belt.

Denials recent large United Kingdom purchases were made under government account were said to have checked Liverpool's advance. It closed ⅛d to ½d higher.

Renewed export buying of Canadian wheat was reported, but on an odd lot basis. The minor pickup, however, brought rallies in the cash pit.

Buenos Aires moved ahead ⅜ to ½ cent at noon.

Cash dealings also were light, but Nos. 1 and 2 Northern advanced a cent to 17 and 7 cents premium above the May future. No. 2 durum spread improved 2 cents on export buying.

Coarse grains were firm. Oats ¾ higher, barley ½ higher and rye 1¼ higher at the top points.

CHICAGO (AP) — Late reactions today more than wiped out moderate upturns of wheat prices.

Increased selling pressure developed on advances. Bearish traders made much of denials that the British Government was buying wheat, and also emphasized late reports that rain had fallen in parts of Italy, relieving droughty conditions.

At the close, Chicago wheat futures were unchanged to ½c lower May 82¾ to 82⅞, July 79⅞ to 80, corn ⅜ off to ⅛ up, May 59⅞ to 60, July 61⅝, and oats varying from ¼c to ⅛ advance.

Rails Suffer But Industrials Are Up

NEW YORK (AP) — Buyers favored industrial shares and shied away from rails in a temperamental stock market today. Transactions approximated 600,000 shares.

A wide break in Santa Fe shares threw other rails off the bullish track. Delayed two hours before a market could be made, Santa Fee preferred plunged more than 13 points at one time, while the common soon after the opening broke about 4, later rallying a bit.

Liquidation in Santa Fe followed overnight announcement the road had decided to defer action on payment of interest on the 4 per cent adjustment bonds of 1995, the first delay since the road was reorganized in 1896. The slide shocked other sections of the market for a while.

However, good support for leading industrials pulled the market into a rally and gains of fractions to more than 2 points were numerous, especially among steels, chemicals, electrical equipments and other groups favored in a return of inflation sentiment as result of the new federal spending proposals and suggested use of "sterilized" gold to help finance the outlay.

Wheat futures at Chicago were unchanged to ½ cent a bushel lower. Corn was off ⅜ to ⅛ up. Most commodities held to a narrow range.

(By H. A. Humber Ltd.)

Dow Jones averages closed today as follows:

Thirty industrials — 114.85, up 0.97.

Twenty rails — 21.61, off 0.79.

Twenty utilities—17.64, off 0.18.

Forty Bonds — 83.96, off 0.35.

Activity in Oils Boosts Sales Up

TORONTO (CP) — Toronto Stock Exchange registered an improved price tone today on expanded volume, but the late afternoon brought sluggish action with prices a bit soft at the close. Western oils displayed a bullish note and active trading in the group was an important factor in pushing the day's sales to more than 700,000 shares.

Nickel halved an early point gain, while Noranda closed about a point up, and Smelters finished a fraction up. Ventures, Pend Oreille and Falconbridge posted gains of 5 to 15. Most of the silvers closed narrowly higher.

BONDS

NEW YORK (CP) — The rail section of the bond market was depressed today by a series of wide breaks in isues of the Santa Fe system.

Immediate reason for the decline was the Santa Fe's announcement it would defer consideration of interest payment on the adjustment 4s of 1995 until later.

The affected bonds broke about 8 points in early trading, then recovered a minor part of the loss. Other Santa Fe loans fell from 2 to around 5.

"The End of the World"

III.—THE BRIGHT STAR VEGA

Perhaps you know the bright star Vega. It is to be found under the cup part of the little Dipper.

Diagram showing Little Dipper and Vega.

Many a time, on a summer night, I have seen Vega almost directly overhead. I have looked at it with special interest, for that star is believed to be getting closer and closer to the sun and the planets. Our solar system seems to be going almost directly toward Vega.

Vega is one of the four brightest stars in the sky. When I say that, I do not include planets. Jupiter, Venus and Mars are brighter, but they are not true stars.

The name "Vega" is part of an old Arab name meaning "Falling Eagle." If Verga is really coming our way, that is a rather good name from the viewpoint of people on earth.

Vega is a star of great size. If we were no farther from it than we are from the sun, it would seem about a hundred times as bright as the sun.

The most happy thing about Vega is that its distance from us is billions and billions of miles. Even if we are going fast, and even if it is coming fast, the meeting cannot take place for several million years. The present distance of Vega is about 156,000,000,000,000 miles.

Another fact is this: There seems to be just a little angle away from the direct line in the path of Vega toward us. If this be so the slight angle will make ever so much difference when Vega has traveled the vast distance it is now from us. In that case, the gigantic star will miss the solar system, with billions of miles to spare.

Astronomers figure the day will come when Vega will be in a place where the earth's north pole will point directly toward it. This event is to take place in about 14,000 years. Then people of the earth will have a new North star in place of the one we have today.

HOROSCOPE

THURSDAY, APRIL 14, 1938

Benefic aspects dominate today, according to astrology. There is a sign most promising to business leaders, although there may be difficulty regarding banking relations.

Financial policies of the nation will be widely and ignorantly discussed while conflicting theories will cause uncertainty among investors.

Science will be stimulated along many lines of effort this year. Amazing results will follow secret experiments and encourage novel application of new knowledge.

Gardens now come under a stimulating planetary influence which promises improvement in public parks and extending interest in home cultivation of flowers and shrubs.

Girls should cultivate the art of living and realize that in high service they will gain true happiness. Many college students are preparing for eventful careers, astrologers emphasize.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a year of pleasant experiences in which there are many happy days. Money will be plentiful for many women.

Children born on this day probably will be rapid in their physical and mental development. These subjects of Aries are likely to be strong-willed, courageous and successful.

James Branch Cabell, author, was born on this day 1879. Others who have celebrated it as a birthday include Horace Bushnell, theologian, 1802; Ralph Arnold, geologist, 1875.

An ounce of uranium disintegrates into .865 ounce of lead, which is a metal, and .135 ounce of helium, which is a gas. By using this method of measuring time, the earth shows an age of more than 1,400,000,000 years.

Human teeth show their growth by rings, like trees.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR MISS DIX—We are going through the first hell that has ever been raised in our home in all of our married life of 16 years. It is about our daughter, who is 15 years old, tall, dark, good-looking and who appears to be at least 17 years old. She is still in the second year at high school, yet her mother dresses her beyond our means, lets her daub herself up with paint and go car-riding and to dances with boys and girls who are five years older than she is, without any responsible person along. Her mother doesn't want her to do any housework or wash any dishes as she might roughen her hands or take off the red nail polish. My wife thinks that this is all right, but I know it is all wrong, yet I find that I can do nothing to stop it. I am particularly helpless as I am away from home a great deal on business. I am not an overly strict father. I want my girl to enjoy herself and have all the boys and girls at the house that she wishes, but I do want her to be under some sort of control at her age. Am a right or wrong in this?

AN ANXIOUS FATHER.

Answer: You are altogether right and your wife is altogether wrong, but I am sorry to tell you that there is nothing you can do about it. She will never see your point of view until it is forever too late to save your daughter from the results of her folly.

Any woman with a grain of sense in her head knows that no girl of 15 has enough intelligence or knowledge of the world to order her own life, pick out her companions and be emancipated from all parental control. Every mother knows that a girl of 15 who has the passions of a woman and the judgments of a babe, who is crazy for pleasure and drunk on her new-found freedom, is at the most dangerous moment of her life and that she needs a strong and steady hand to keep her in the right path.

Mothers let their girls do as your wife is letting yours do because they cannot bear to deny them anything they want; because they have not the backbone to fight headstrong youngsters; or because mothers have a curious vanity about their daughters being attractive to men and are proud when a girl of 15 has attentions from grown-up men instead of the innocent skylarking of boys of her own age.

They ignore the fact that a young girl whose mother lets her stray out of the home fold unguarded is in as much peril as a lamb would be in a pack of wolves. That any one escapes is sheer luck, or the especial mercy of God.

Warm Welcome Awaits Destroyers Tomorrow

Four Destroyers of Canadian Navy Will Pass Off Waterfront in Mid-morning

Tomorrow will be a gala day in Esquimalt Harbor when the four destroyers of the Canadian navy will berth there at 11 in the morning, following winter manoeuvres in the southern Pacific.

Skeena, flagship of the squadron; Fraser, St. Laurent and Saguenay will pass off the waterfront in the morning, between 10.15 and 10.30, and will be fast alongside their docks in the harbor by 11. They are coming here from Vancouver, where they have been since their arrival from sea earlier in the week.

On the four ships is a total complement of 960 officers and men, the largest group of Canadian naval seamen ever to be stationed in Esquimalt Harbor at one time. Not since the days when the Royal Navy was there will so many bluejackets be at the historic naval base indefinitely together. In addition to the men of the four ships a large group of naval reserve men from all parts of western Canada are now receiving training at the barracks and the dockyard.

Ss. Anglo Australia, Bound For B.C. Waters, Thought Lost in Atlantic Storm

LONDON (AP)—Owners of the British freighter Anglo-Australian, which has not been heard from in nearly a month, expressed the belief today that the vessel and crew of 38 had been lost in a mid-Atlantic storm.

The 5,456-ton freighter, owned by the Nitrate Producers' Steamship Company, sailed from Cardiff March 8 and was last reported March 14 from Fayal, Azores. It should have reached Panama by March 29.

The last message received from the vessel said: "Passed Fayal this afternoon. Rough weather All well."

The Anglo-Australian is well known in British Columbia waters and was bound here when she disappeared. She was built in 1927 at Sunderland by Short Brothers. She is registered at 5,456 tons, with a length of 426 feet, a beam of 58 feet and a depth of 26 feet.

NANAIMO — Voyage 6,669 Ss. Princess Elaine on Sunday morning last, marked the approach of the 10th year this well-known and popular ship has been on the Vancouver-Nanaimo run. She was recently overhauled in Victoria, and of special interest in the dining salon is a model of Nanaimo's historic Bastion, expertly designed, with electric lights set in the model to shine through the port holes.

The master of the Elaine is Capt. N. S. Sterner, who commanded her when she made her first trip to Nanaimo in 1928. The chief engineer, William Woolcock, was the first chief of the Elaine, and was in charge of the engine room on the trip from the Clyde, where she was built, to Victoria. Peter McCusker is also a present member of the crew who came out from Scotland on her maiden volage.

King Brothers have been advised Ss. Anglo Indian will sail from Montreal about May 10 for Victoria and Vancouver, in service for the Vancouver-St. Lawrence Line. She will arrive here a month later on the line's 60th westbound sailing.

Wreckage Located Off Island Coast

SEATTLE (AP)—Wreckage of a small cruiser sighted near Calvert Island, 40 miles off Vancouver Island, may be that of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Rossick, Seattle couple lost last fall, Mrs. Lucille Mitchell, her sister, said today.

A fisherman returning here told of seeing the wreckage, which was white, trimmed in green and of the same general description as the Rossick craft, she said. The cabin was intact, but parts which housed the engine were charred, indicating an explosion may have occurred.

The Rossicks have not been heard from since last October 28, when they left Butedale, B.C., in their 38-foot boat, headed for Seattle.

"The fisherman said that if the explosion occurred somewhere near the island, they had a chance to make land," Mrs. Mitchell said.

She added she would try to enlist the aid of Canadian authorities to send planes or patrol boats to the island. Rossick was formerly well known in Tacoma.

VIEWS DIFFER ON VAGRANCY

CALGARY (CP)—Judges of the Alberta Appeal Court, sitting in Calgary Tuesday, expressed disapproval of the conviction of persons on vagrancy charges while they had money in their possession and were obviously not living "without visible means of support."

W. S. Gray, K.C., representative of the Attorney-General's Department, drew the attention of the court to a decision in a British Columbia case whereby a man was convicted of vagrancy despite the fact he had $280 in his possession and an automobile.

"I should say that was bad law," commented Mr. Justice A. A. McGillivray.

"I am inclined to agree with you," said Chief Justice Horace Harvey.

On the other hand, stated Mr. Justice McGillivray, people should not be put in jail because they are poor.

Because the crown could not show that Edward Knight of Calgary was living "without visible means of support" a conviction against him was quashed and a sentence of 18 months canceled.

Evidence showed Knight had a home in Calgary and had won money at the races.

HE WAS ALWAYS TIRED AND ILL

Three Complaints Gave Him a Miserable Time

Suffering from three complaints—disordered kidneys, sciatica and rheumatism, how could this man be anything else but always tired and ill? This is what he writes:

"Up to a month or so ago, I had suffered continually from kidney disorder, sciatica, rheumatism and generally felt off color. I was constantly tired, and under medical supervision. I tried many remedies, but without effect until I gave Kruschen Salts a trial. In four weeks, Kruschen has brought about a complete transformation. I have a healthy appetite and once more feel that it is good to be alive."—S. V. N.

The kidneys are the filters of the human machine. If they become sluggish, impurities find their way into the blood-stream, and the seed of a half-dozen common ailments is sown.

The scientific combination of salts in Kruschen quickly coaxes the kidneys back to healthy, normal action. Soon your ailments are relieved and life becomes a joy again. (Advt.)
